

Bill To Revolutionize Vet Aid Will Be Offered

Johnson's Proposal Would Amend World War Veterans' Act in 34 Different Ways.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Amid echoing demands for cash payment on adjusted compensation certificates, Chairman Johnson of the house veterans' committee, today prepared to introduce a bill proposing the greatest liberalization asked by the American Legion since existing provisions were enacted seven years ago.

The bill drafted by the Legion would amend the World War veterans' act in 34 separate ways. It would increase pension rates, provide hospitalization for all veterans regardless of service connection of their illness; extend present temporary dependency allowances to dependents of permanently disabled; and supply additional widows and orphan pensions.

Advocates of certificate payments renewed their demands for a hearing on a number of such proposals, but Chairman Hawley of the ways and means committee stood firmly against taking them up.

Representative Garner of Texas, the democratic leader, introduced a bill to provide cash payment of the surrender value of the certificates, at the option of the veteran. Representative Fish, republican, New York, said he had reason to believe the national commander of the Legion was gauging sentiment on the New Yorkers' request that the executive committee be called together to take a stand on the question.

"If he does not respond within a

Liberty Will Receive Smart New Equipment

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—(AP)—A more brilliant Liberty, resplendent with new attire, may cast a prouder glow of welcome to home-sick Americans next year.

Improving and refitting the exterior of the famous statue in New York harbor, installing a new automatic elevator within and doubling the flood-lighting power without, was recommended by the house appropriations committee today in the army supply bill.

The cost was set at $58,405 plus $6,907 for additional electricity.

few days," Fish added, "I will have something more to say."

The New Yorker is sponsoring cash payment of 25 per cent of the final face value of the certificates, whether or not the veterans have borrowed from the government on them.

Representative Ludlow, democrat, Indiana, also introduced a bill today to authorize the director of the veterans' bureau to pay the veterans an amount equal to the value of his certificate increased by 25 per cent, plus 4 per cent interest.

The American Legion bill includes two provisions which experts said last year would call for an outlay of $30,000,000 and $12,000,000 each. These are, respectively, one to give to dependents of permanently disabled veterans and one to place chronic and constitutional diseases developed before 1925 on a list of maladies presumed of service origin.

MCDONALD TO CONFER WITH ENGLISH MINERS

LONDON, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Soapbox orators were talking communism in the south Wales coal fields today and it became obvious there was a grave danger of disorder among the 140,000 miners idle since New Year's Day because of wage disputes with the mine owners.

Their spokesmen conferred with Emanuel Shinwell, the minister of mines, and William Graham, president of the board of trade, who later talked with the director of the 140,000 miners' union. McDonald and issued an invitation to the owners to come here for a meeting tomorrow.

The owners accepted and both sides agree that unless some compromise comes out of this meeting hopes for peace in the industry are slim indeed.

OFFICERS SAIL SHIP WHEN CREW DESERTS

ISTANBUL, Turkey, Jan. 5.—(AP)—A mutiny in the crew of the American freighter Hopatcong was disclosed today when she reached here from Odessa with her captain wounded and her crew missing.

The crew deserted at Odessa and the officers navigated the ship here from the Black sea port.

She put into Odessa with a cargo of machinery from New York, and the crew of six men went ashore after the cargo was unloaded.

When they came back they piled aboard shouting that they had turned communists. Roaring into the skipper's cabin, they knifed Captain Bergsten and scrambled off the ship.

Bergsten spent ten days in a hospital and when he was discharged he and his officers brought the ship here and collected a Turkish crew.

NEGRO WOMAN KILLED BY SHOTGUN BLAST

Wounded beneath the chin at close range early Monday night by a shotgun blast by police to have been fired by Clarence Coxley, a negro, whose address was unknown to them, Harriet Lewis, negro woman, died in an ambulance en route to Grady hospital from her home, 78 Fort street, N. E., where the shooting occurred.

Police said the killer crawled under the house and fired the gun through a hole in the floor. He is being sought by officers.

Heads Institute

Ralph H. Lounsberry, who is directing the third annual institute of statesmanship which is being held at Rollins college, Winter Park, Fla., this week, Mr. Lounsberry, who is professor of American government and political science at Rollins, is a former attorney of Chicago and New York.

BRUCE SEES COMBINES DOMINATING TRADE

WINTER PARK, Fla., Jan. 5.—(AP)—Forecasting a period of bigger business combines with the declaration that America moved economically forward, Dr. Harold B. Bruce, professor of political science, Dartmouth college, delivered the opening address at the third annual institute of statesmanship here tonight.

The general theme of the institute is "Our Changing Economic Life."

Chain stores, Dr. Bruce said, "will grow larger and more useful; independent merchants will thrive only where they are wise enough to adopt the methods of their corporate brother merchants and government regulations will become more consolidated in the control of business."

"The whole trend of American business now is toward perfection of mass distribution," the speaker asserted, "and as the years of the war emphasized the importance of co-ordinated production through large concerns unified direction, so may a season of unwise business depression witness the same development in distribution agencies."

"Despite the difficulties that will always attend large scale business, one is forced by the unswerving trend of American economy to the conviction that we are yet to see a great development of big business in this country."

"The scientific attention devoted by the large organization to varied details of its transactions is responsible for much of its development."

The change in American public thought toward huge combines in recent years is "little short of miraculous," declared Dr. Bruce.

Dr. Myron W. Watkins, of New York University, will open the first round table of the institute tomorrow night with a discussion on "Causes of the combination movement."

VIOLENT DEATH TOLL MOUNTS IN TAMPA

TAMPA, Fla., Jan. 5.—(AP)—Violent death from bullets or automobiles took its seventh victim here today as a result of a shooting in a record show. The latest victim was an unidentified man who police believe was struck down by a motorist and dragged into an unoccupied house to die.

The dead: January 1—J. E. Jones, city detective, shot by unknown assassin; January 1—Charles Furlong, boy killed by motor truck; January 1—Fred P. Keene, 31, killed by wild bullet; January 3—James Tucker, escaped convict, shot by officer; January 4—R. L. Kirk, 40, shot self; January 4—John Hammond, automobile victim; January 5—Unidentified man, dragged into unoccupied house Friday.

EIGHTEENTH AMENDMENT UPLIFTED IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—(AP)—The eighteenth amendment was held to have been legally adopted in a decision today by the United States circuit court of appeals, ruling on a case which had defense the same as in the recent Sprague case in New Jersey in which Federal Judge Clark held that the amendment had not been legally ratified.

The court of appeals affirmed the conviction of Louis E. Thibault, of Windsor, Vt., who was accused of possessing and selling two pints of whisky.

In the Sprague case, counsel for the losing side announced appeal would be taken to the United States supreme court.

In each case counsel defending the accused person contended that after adoption of the tenth amendment, no amendment giving the national government additional power over the people or over their rights could be adopted except by the people in convention, or by their delegated representatives.

The eighteenth amendment, they contended, was not legally ratified by the states because it was approved by the legislatures instead of by state conventions gathered for the express purpose of considering it.

ARLISS IS PERFECT AS 'OLD ENGLISH'

"OLD ENGLISH," with George Arliss, Newmarket and short subjects. Feature starts at 11:35, 1:35, 3:45, 5:45, 7:55 and 9:25.

George Arliss never created more perfectly any character of the many he has been called upon to bring to life from the pen scratches of a "wright," than that of "Old English," the lovable, irascible, wicked old Liverpool shipmaster of John Galsworthy's play.

On Monday the talking picture version of this classic stage creation opened a three-day run at the Paramount theater. No one who cares anything at all for the artistry of stage creation or for the whimsicality of Galsworthy's pen, will miss the production.

"Old English," has been called "wicked." This adjective doesn't fit, however. According to the play he has a past that would not stand a Puritanical scrutiny. He engages in a piece of trickery at the end of his life that qualifies him for the brand of a criminal. Yet, he is lovable, delightful and altogether worthy of anyone's approval. For, after all, the purpose of our acts must, frequently, be their justification.

Paramount has given the play an almost perfect mounting and the supporting cast is thoroughly agreeable—and completely English—throughout. The little Irish housemaid is especially delightful.

There is a short comedy that didn't prove as appealing as it might, one of the always enjoyable dancing hall songs and a Paramount News Reel that is worth the price of admission alone just to see Al Smith act as an alone Juste Santa Claus.

THEATER PROGRAMS

FOX—"War Nurse," with Anita Page, June Walker, Robert Montgomery, etc. Newsreel and short subjects. GRAND—"Whoopee," with George Arliss, Newmarket and short subjects. MAJESTIC—"The Right to Love," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects. WEST END—"Monte Carlo," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects.

Second-Run Pictures

ALHAMBRA—"The Law," with George Arliss, Newmarket and short subjects. BUCKHEAD—"Scotland Yard," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects. DEKALB—"Monte Carlo," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects. EMPIRE—"A Lady Surrenders," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects. MAJESTIC—"Dynamite," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects. WEST END—"Monte Carlo," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects.

Neighborhood Pictures

BUCKHEAD—"Scotland Yard," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects. DEKALB—"Monte Carlo," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects. EMPIRE—"A Lady Surrenders," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects. MAJESTIC—"Dynamite," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects. WEST END—"Monte Carlo," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects.

Don't Dig Itching Skin

Go to your druggist and get a package of Dr. David's Sanative Wash. It is guaranteed to relieve the worst case of itching or you pay nothing. It quickly penetrates to where the devilish germs have burrowed into your skin and are causing you torture and embarrassment. It kills these germs—the itching stops—the raw, inflamed skin is allowed to heal and you have freedom from embarrassment and relief from the dreadful torture. At our druggist or sent under plain cover post paid for 60c. Relieved guaranteed or money promptly refunded. Owens Motor Drug Co., 13 S. 10th, Richmond, Va.—(adv.)

WOODCOCK SEEKS 130 MORE AGENTS

Date for Clark Ruling Decision Subject for Argument.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—(AP)—A move to press 130 new federal dry agents into immediate service reached the floor of the house today, while the supreme court, a short distance away, was entertaining a petition that it postpone until April 15 its hearing of the New Jersey decision holding the eighteenth amendment invalid.

A little later the motion of Solicitor-General Thacher that the widely publicized ruling of Federal Judge Clark be given the earliest possible hearing also was filed with the court.

Although the high tribunal deferred its answer to the conflicting pleas, probably until next Monday, it did move to settle a long-standing minor prohibition controversy. It ruled illegal the federal dry raid upon the offices of the Go-Bart Importing Company, of New York, in June, 1929.

Prohibition Director Woodcock's request for additional dry agents, to be put to work before July 1, was contained in the first deficiency bill reported to the house by its appropriations committee. The measure asked for $543,370, for prohibition and would put 237 additional prohibition agents in the field, approximately half of them agents.

At the same time it was disclosed that in Woodcock's testimony before the appropriations committee he had announced 25 of these dry officers would be assigned to the New York district; 21 to the Illinois section, and 18 to the Pennsylvania, Delaware and New Jersey area, the other 12 prohibition districts would draw smaller complements. The men would be put to work before July 1, when Woodcock has requested.

"Our organization right now is depleted in agents' places," he said, "We have about 1,400 today. That is probably a great deal short of what is a normal complement. . . . This 130 is the estimate of the number we can get in and get appointed."

The measure would provide $10,000 for prohibition education, to be conducted through monographs and pamphlets and other conditions under the laws, prepared by a staff of research experts.

Acting as spokesman for the attorneys defending the Judge Clark decision, Frederick M. P. Pearce told the supreme court other engagements would prevent their appearing for at least three months.

At the same time he criticized as incomplete the brief filed by Solicitor-General Thacher, contending the government attorneys for the Atlanta Restaurant Association, who sponsors the kitchen, he said Monday night.

The kitchen is feeding from 1,200 to 1,400 persons daily by virtue of the restaurant association contributions," Mr. Turner said, "and the association does not want the public to get the impression that it is soliciting outside assistance."

Those having knowledge of the pseudo-canvassers are requested to communicate with Mr. Turner at Walnut 5547.

NICARAGUAN CHIEF WANTS U. S. MARINES

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Jan. 5.—(AP)—President Jose Moncada, of Nicaragua, believes it would be unwise to withdraw American marines from the country at this time, he told the Associated Press today. The president said he would like, however, to insure additional co-operation of Nicaraguans with the marines in an effort to stamp out banditry.

"OUTSIDE THE LAW" SHOWING AT CAMEO

An underworld drama in many ways realistic, "Outside the Law," the attraction showing at the Cameo theater through Tuesday.

Mary Nolan, in the role of Connie Macfarlane, fully justifies her position as a screen star, and gives a convincing portrayal of a difficult role—difficult in that for the greater part of the picture it is in a measure unsympathetic.

The popular Owen Moore brings to the role of the gangster lover the attractive personality that has endeared him to the hearts of theatergoers. Another powerful characterization is contributed by Edward G. Robinson, a recent recruit to motion pictures following a successful career on the Broadway stage.

Theater Programs

FOX—"War Nurse," with Anita Page, June Walker, Robert Montgomery, etc. Newsreel and short subjects. GRAND—"Whoopee," with George Arliss, Newmarket and short subjects. MAJESTIC—"The Right to Love," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects. WEST END—"Monte Carlo," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects.

Second-Run Pictures

ALHAMBRA—"The Law," with George Arliss, Newmarket and short subjects. BUCKHEAD—"Scotland Yard," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects. DEKALB—"Monte Carlo," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects. EMPIRE—"A Lady Surrenders," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects. MAJESTIC—"Dynamite," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects. WEST END—"Monte Carlo," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects.

Neighborhood Pictures

BUCKHEAD—"Scotland Yard," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects. DEKALB—"Monte Carlo," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects. EMPIRE—"A Lady Surrenders," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects. MAJESTIC—"Dynamite," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects. WEST END—"Monte Carlo," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects.

Don't Dig Itching Skin

Go to your druggist and get a package of Dr. David's Sanative Wash. It is guaranteed to relieve the worst case of itching or you pay nothing. It quickly penetrates to where the devilish germs have burrowed into your skin and are causing you torture and embarrassment. It kills these germs—the itching stops—the raw, inflamed skin is allowed to heal and you have freedom from embarrassment and relief from the dreadful torture. At our druggist or sent under plain cover post paid for 60c. Relieved guaranteed or money promptly refunded. Owens Motor Drug Co., 13 S. 10th, Richmond, Va.—(adv.)

Retiring City Workers Lose Five Days' Pay

Mayor I. N. Ragsdale, attaches of his office, and other retiring department heads and employees, Monday heard of their loss of five days' pay.

The legal authorities ruled that although they served the borough since January 1, they were not entitled to compensation for this period. Heretofore workers have been paid their proportionate salary for the time served.

TENNESSEE ASSEMBLY MEETS IN NASHVILLE

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 5.—(AP)—Before crowded galleries, the 67th general assembly of Tennessee convened today for its 75-day biennial session, during which it will look into the state's affairs and investigate the deposits of nearly $60,000,000 of public funds in three closed banks.

Attention at the opening session was directed towards organization, and in fact the senate experienced difficulty. While the house was selecting Walter M. Haynes, of Winchester, as speaker, the senate demoted after three ballots and postponed any further attempt to choose a speaker from among the five candidates. Action of the caucus is final as the senate is overwhelmingly democratic.

The speakership has been accorded unusual importance because of the general belief that the presiding officer will name the committee to investigate state affairs. Governor Henry H. Horton has announced that he favors "thorough investigation of each state department. The speaker of the senate is next in line of succession to the governor.

Many observers considered a significant move was made by the Shelby county (Memphis) senatorial delegation, when it announced it would support one of its own members, Scott Fitzhugh, for the speakership. This decision was made known just before the caucus was ready to begin.

The three Shelby voters had been counted upon by administration forces to elect Senator W. K. Abernathy, of Selma, and had received them he would have had the necessary 15 votes on the first ballot. Without his own, he was given 11 votes, but on the two subsequent ballots lost one.

Two years ago the Shelby delegation voted for the Atlanta Restaurant Association, who sponsors the kitchen, he said Monday night.

The kitchen is feeding from 1,200 to 1,400 persons daily by virtue of the restaurant association contributions," Mr. Turner said, "and the association does not want the public to get the impression that it is soliciting outside assistance."

Those having knowledge of the pseudo-canvassers are requested to communicate with Mr. Turner at Walnut 5547.

COMMUNITY KITCHEN FAKERS REPORTED

Reports that girls selling perfumes and young men taking subscriptions for magazines are representing themselves as aiding the community kitchen, have been received by Lawson Turner, attorney for the Atlanta Restaurant Association, who sponsors the kitchen, he said Monday night.

The kitchen is feeding from 1,200 to 1,400 persons daily by virtue of the restaurant association contributions," Mr. Turner said, "and the association does not want the public to get the impression that it is soliciting outside assistance."

Those having knowledge of the pseudo-canvassers are requested to communicate with Mr. Turner at Walnut 5547.

NICARAGUAN CHIEF WANTS U. S. MARINES

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Jan. 5.—(AP)—President Jose Moncada, of Nicaragua, believes it would be unwise to withdraw American marines from the country at this time, he told the Associated Press today. The president said he would like, however, to insure additional co-operation of Nicaraguans with the marines in an effort to stamp out banditry.

"OUTSIDE THE LAW" SHOWING AT CAMEO

An underworld drama in many ways realistic, "Outside the Law," the attraction showing at the Cameo theater through Tuesday.

Mary Nolan, in the role of Connie Macfarlane, fully justifies her position as a screen star, and gives a convincing portrayal of a difficult role—difficult in that for the greater part of the picture it is in a measure unsympathetic.

The popular Owen Moore brings to the role of the gangster lover the attractive personality that has endeared him to the hearts of theatergoers. Another powerful characterization is contributed by Edward G. Robinson, a recent recruit to motion pictures following a successful career on the Broadway stage.

Theater Programs

FOX—"War Nurse," with Anita Page, June Walker, Robert Montgomery, etc. Newsreel and short subjects. GRAND—"Whoopee," with George Arliss, Newmarket and short subjects. MAJESTIC—"The Right to Love," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects. WEST END—"Monte Carlo," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects.

Second-Run Pictures

ALHAMBRA—"The Law," with George Arliss, Newmarket and short subjects. BUCKHEAD—"Scotland Yard," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects. DEKALB—"Monte Carlo," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects. EMPIRE—"A Lady Surrenders," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects. MAJESTIC—"Dynamite," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects. WEST END—"Monte Carlo," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects.

Neighborhood Pictures

BUCKHEAD—"Scotland Yard," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects. DEKALB—"Monte Carlo," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects. EMPIRE—"A Lady Surrenders," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects. MAJESTIC—"Dynamite," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects. WEST END—"Monte Carlo," with Ruth Chatterton, Newmarket and short subjects.

Don't Dig Itching Skin

Go to your druggist and get a package of Dr. David's Sanative Wash. It is guaranteed to relieve the worst case of itching or you pay nothing. It quickly penetrates to where the devilish germs have burrowed into your skin and are causing you torture and embarrassment. It kills these germs—the itching stops—the raw, inflamed skin is allowed to heal and you have freedom from embarrassment and relief from the dreadful torture. At our druggist or sent under plain cover post paid for 60c. Relieved guaranteed or money promptly refunded. Owens Motor Drug Co., 13 S. 10th, Richmond, Va.—(adv.)

SIBLEY APPOINTMENT TO SUB-COMMITTEE

No Opposition Expected to Promotion of Atlanta to Appellate Bench.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—(Special.)—The nomination of Federal District Judge Samuel H. Sibley, of Atlanta, to be a member of the court of appeals Monday was referred by the senate judiciary committee to a sub-committee composed of Senator Robinson, republican, of Indiana; Senator Blaine, republican, of Wisconsin, and Senator King, democrat, of Idaho.

The two republican senators and Senator Dill, democrat, of Washington, were appointed to a sub-committee to study the appointment of Judge Joseph C. Hutcheson, of Texas, to the other of two appellate bench vacancies.

No opposition to either judge is expected and a prompt report and confirmation of both is forecast.

Walsh Moves To Out Power Commissioners

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Reconsideration of the confirmation of three of the new power commissioners because of their dismissal of Charles A. Russell, and William V. King, the commission's solicitor and chief engineer, respectively, was sought today in the senate.

Senator Walsh, democrat, Montana, moved another vote on the nomination of Chairman Smith and Commissioners Garsaud and Draper and to request President Hoover to return the notification of their confirmations.

A dozen senators, both republicans and democrats, have announced they will support the motion.

Administration leaders made plans to combat the movement, however, and there were indications of extended debate before a final vote.

Hoover and Coolidge Invited to Dedication

MARION, Ohio, Jan. 5.—(AP)—President Herbert Hoover and former President Calvin Coolidge today were extended official invitations to participate in the dedication of the tomb of the late President and Mrs. Warren G. Harding.

Trustees of the Harding Memorial Association formally extended the invitations and requested that the date for the ceremonies be set for some time between next May 15 and November 15 to suit the convenience of the nation's chief executive and the man he succeeded.

Mrs. Hart, Maclaren Delay 'Pay Load' Hop

NORFOLK, Va., Jan. 5.—(AP)—Mrs. Bevil Hart and Lieutenant William S. Maclaren said tonight they had delayed resumption of their "pay load" flight to Paris via Bermuda and the Azores until Wednesday morning because of a storm reported up and down the Atlantic seaboard.

Their monoplane, Tradewind, was in readiness to hop off at 6 a. m. tomorrow and they had announced plans for starting at that time. Later weather reports advised, however, that the storm which started this morning had not abated. They believe that by Wednesday it will be spent.

ATTACKED BY DOG, BOY BADLY BITTEN

Clyde Spencer, eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Spencer, of 193 McDougall street, S. E., received dangerous wounds about the face and head late Monday afternoon when a vicious bulldog, chained on the premises of C. B. Crane, next door, attacked the child as he was walking between the two houses. Young Spencer underwent treatment at Grady hospital and was allowed to return to his home.

According to investigating Officers Pittman and Hill, the dog's chain was about eight feet in length and the houses only 16 feet apart, making it dangerous for the child to walk between them. A case against Crane was made by the two officers.

Physicians Ordered To Pay Doctor $30,000

SPOKANE, Wash., Jan. 5.—(AP) Ten doctors ordered by a jury to pay Dr. W. W. Robinson $30,000 for "slandering and humiliating" him by expelling him from the Spokane County Medical Society announced today they would appeal the case.

The verdict, returned last night, gave the award to Robinson, who had sued for $60,000. He has a libel suit for $30,000 pending against Dr. Charles B. Ward and Dr. Carroll Smith for publishing charges against him in a medical journal.

He was ousted from the medical society, technically for "keeping improper records" in a hospital, and thereupon sued 20 physicians. The court dismissed ten defendants. During the trial defense physicians denounced Robinson for "performing improper, unethical, and unnecessary" major operations upon women. Robinson retorted by bringing to the witness chair several patients who testified his operations had made them happier and had bettered their health. Seven women were on the jury.

The loss of the Raritan was estimated at $101,000, but army officials declared she would cost $1,000,000 to replace. The liner's bow was deeply dented at the water line but she was able to make her pier unassisted.

Captain John Peterson, commander of the dredge, was slightly injured. The loss of the Raritan was estimated at $101,000, but army officials declared she would cost $1,000,000 to replace. The liner's bow was deeply dented at the water line but she was able to make her pier unassisted.

Captain John Peterson, commander of the dredge, was slightly injured. The loss of the Raritan was estimated at $101,000, but army officials declared she would cost $1,000,000 to replace. The liner's bow was deeply dented at the water line but she was able to make her pier unassisted.

Captain John Peterson, commander of the dredge, was slightly injured. The loss of the Raritan was estimated at $101,000, but army officials declared she would cost $1,000,000 to replace. The liner's bow was deeply dented at the water line but she was able to make her pier unassisted.

THE CONSTITUTION

CLARK HOWELL
Editor and General Manager
Clark Howell, Jr., Business Manager Entered at the Postoffice at Atlanta as second-class mail matter.

Subscription Rates:
Daily and 10¢ a copy, 5¢ a copy, 1¢ a copy.
Single Copies—Daily, 10¢; Sunday, 5¢.
By Mail Only:
Daily, 10¢ a copy, 5¢ a copy, 1¢ a copy.
Single Copies—Daily, 10¢; Sunday, 5¢.
By Mail Only:
Daily, 10¢ a copy, 5¢ a copy, 1¢ a copy.
Single Copies—Daily, 10¢; Sunday, 5¢.

ATLANTA, GA., JANUARY 6, 1931.

J. R. HOLLIDAY, Constitution Building, sole advertising manager for all territories outside of Atlanta.

THE CONSTITUTION is on sale in New York city by J. R. Holliday, 100 Broadway, New York 100, N. Y. It can be had at all newsstands and by mail from the Constitution Building, 100 Broadway, New York 100, N. Y.

The Constitution is not responsible for advances payments to out-of-town local carriers, dealers or agents. Receipts given for subscription payments not in accordance with published rates are not authorized; also not responsible for subscription payments not received at office of publication.

Member of The Associated Press.
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to use for publication of all dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein.

THE CARNAGE CONTINUES.

A promising young Emory student is dead as the result of a crash with a hit-and-run driver Sunday; one of Atlanta's most valuable citizens was brought face to face with sudden death, and a long list of others are today suffering from injuries incurred in automobile accidents on the streets of Atlanta and the highways of Georgia.

Thus the mounting toll from reckless and criminal driving.

Not a day passes that the uncontrolled use of the public thoroughfares by those seemingly indifferent to what may happen to themselves or others is not a constant threat to the health and property of the citizens of Atlanta.

In 1929 nearly 500 people were killed in Georgia in automobile accidents. The figures so far for 1931 indicate an increase of at least 10 per cent in these fatalities.

When it is taken into consideration that only 349 Georgia soldiers were killed in action in France during the entire duration of the World War, a realization can be had of the extent to which the state is suffering from the havoc wrought by reckless driving.

Instead of improving, records show that the situation is daily growing worse. For the first four days of 1931 there was an average of 11.4 accidents per day in Atlanta, while the average for 1930 was only 6.8 per day.

The gravity of these figures should awaken our police authorities from the lethargy into which they have fallen in so far as the enforcement of the city traffic ordinances is concerned.

The traffic squad should be told to get busy and wage a sustained war on reckless and unsafe driving of all kinds.

They should begin heading traffic law violators toward the police station, instead of letting them continue on their heedless way, as they have done heretofore.

It is illegal to drive in Atlanta without a tail light or with only one headlight or with glaring lights.
Speeding is prohibited.

The automobilists of Atlanta are familiar with these laws—or ought to be—and it is up to the police to let those who are endangering the lives and property of others by failing to observe them, know that they cannot longer get away with their reckless and inexcusable use of public thoroughfares.

The insurgent senators seem to say "if we are not raising hell, we're among the unemployed."

Attorney General Mitchell hopes the Wickersham commission will tell him something new about problem. Can they?

There are 48 bills in congress to transfer the World War veterans to the permanent pension rolls. There's no bottom to Uncle Sam's purse.

The Latin-American cure for business depression is to revolutionize and stop all real business.

Mussolini, like our forefather,
John Adams, is for peace, with adequate home preparedness.

Governor Roosevelt wisely leaves
New York city to clean up its own official dirtiness. He was not elected head of the scavenger gang.

Chairman Fess is still riding the Republican national committee, in-

THE ROOSEVELT HIT.

What Franklin D. Roosevelt said when he was inaugurated on Thursday for the second time as governor of New York state is attracting the serious attention of press and publicists all over the nation.

Because Roosevelt is popularly regarded as the most probable democratic contender for the presidency in 1932, there was an expectation that he would quite certainly use his second inaugural opportunity to address the country upon national problems. But he shrewdly chose to disappoint that expectation. As governor of New York he confined himself to New York problems of administration, which are many and complex enough.

But, in dealing with state affairs, he hit upon one of the widest and most important of all the nationwide problems confronting the people of all the states and their governments. He paragonized the aggravated operations of local government as they affect both the community units and the relations of those units to the state mechanism. And that is the momentous question that is being presented to 43 state legislatures that are to be convened this month. Every one of them is demanded to deal with it in reformatory ways.

Governor Roosevelt takes stand firmly against the growing trend toward state and national centralization. In that he adopts the original Jeffersonian democratic doctrine that the best and most controllable government is that of, by and for the local community. It is destructive of democracy and self-responsibility for cities and counties to unload their local problems upon the state and for the states to seek relief by resorting to the powers and resources of the national government.

In the one case the people cease to be citizens and become subjects;
in the other case the states surrender their reserved sovereignties and become provinces of a vast federal machine.

If Governor Roosevelt had been diligent to frame a national issue that would enhance his reputation as a statesman and attract adhesion to himself as a leader, he could not have chanced upon a more important proposition than this of the restoration of honest, economical and competent local self-government. It is an issue big and broad enough for a presidential campaign in the present state of affairs.

A GREAT FEDERAL MERGER.

The greatest and most ominous of all the "mergers" that are taking place in the nation is the steadily increasing merger of the federal and the state governments.

Recent actions of the congress in making huge appropriations in the form of relief measures for classes of citizens, victims in degrees of drouth effects and unemployment because of business slumps, have carried the paternal functions of the federal government many leagues beyond anything ever intended to be assumed by it by its founders.

State lines are being more and more made academic and only a remnant of the most local police powers are left unsurpassed from the once boasted sovereign states. This ab-sorptive metamorphosis of an originally wisely and beautifully balanced dual form of federated government, that was declared by "the fathers" to be the "greatest contribution ever made to the science of politics," is being received by the politicians and the people with scarcely any strong protests. Indeed, there is hot rivalry between the men of all parties as to which can go farthest in devices to coddle, nurture, subsidize and pension the people upon the public purse, thereby to purchase their political favor.

None of those who are ambitious to be called statesmen are heard now recalling the people to the "limitations and authorities of the constitution" as in earlier days; nor to the warnings of Washington in his immortal "farewell address;" nor to the wise and wholesome counsels of Jefferson and Madison in their inaugural addresses upon assuming the chief magistracy of the nation.

The country has come into a new era of constitutional philosophy.
Two words in the constitution now interpret the whole document. Authority in congress to provide for the "general welfare" now super-sedes every other authority and limitation in the supreme charter and gives to that federal body unlimited recourse to any and every demagogic device and raid upon the rights, taxes and treasures of the nation.

Once the people had the protection of democratic principles and their defenders, but they no longer have that defense. Democratic politicians seem as eager as any Hamiltonian republican to expand federal powers, to substitute federal supervision for state self-government, and to distribute the spoils of taxation to the clamorous mobs.
It is a dangerous manifestation.

Senator Moses doesn't think this is a safe time to lighten the republican ship by throwing any Jonah overboard.

THE WORLD'S WINDOW

BY PIERRE VAN PAASSEN

A Fascist Achievement.

The fascist regime is exerting a colossal effort to increase the productivity of the Italian soil. From indications it is safe to assume that it will succeed a few years hence in growing enough wheat to supply the entire nation without importing from abroad.
A. San Rocco was stopped over long enough to see the methods employed in bringing back health and life to the sick soil. Four years ago on a previous visit this district, hundreds of square kilometers in extent, was a huge and dreary marsh, soggy and evil-smelling. Today men and machines are at work and one needs be no agronomist to appreciate the valuable work that has been accomplished.

Formerly the earth did not absorb rain here. This was the curse of the country. Geologists set to work and found that about ten or 15 feet below the surface there existed a layer of small pebbles, perhaps six inches in thickness. The water could not penetrate this stratum, and it was not speedily enough. Boring machines were set to work to punch holes in this pebbly formation of volcanic origin. With the result that the land is drying up.

The visitor sees a miracle going on under his very eyes. Behind the workers stretches an endless large area of yellowish grass, which is yet to be conquered. The private domains of King Victor Emmanuel, that have been punctured with drain holes every 20 yards, actually begin to look like the fattest of Dutch pastures. Some years ago, when the water was still up to the knees of the farmers, the immense sums spent on fertilization.
But they are already putting up state houses for the farmers, and of instruction and help to farmers in the future.

So that the day is not far distant when that boggy marsh, which for centuries avoided like a pestilence because of its poisonous air, will be an oasis of life and health. The signs are not lacking that it will be a prosperous neighborhood. Work of this nature is going on in a score of places in Italy today.

(Copyright, 1931, for The Constitution.)

Health Talks

BY DR. WILLIAM BRADY.

NEBRASKA ATTEMPTS HEALTH EDUCATION BY LEGISLATION.

A lot of moral mentors tell us these days that you can't mould a people's character by legislation, or something like that. Stephen Douglas used some such argument with equal effect before you and I were born.
The great state of Nebraska makes an ambitious attempt to legislate health education in the public schools of that state. The bill, which is now before the legislature, is entitled "An act to amend the laws relating to the public schools of this state, and to provide for the instruction of pupils in the schools supported by public money, in the subjects of hygiene, in physiology and hygiene with reference to the effects of alcoholic drinks and other stimulants and narcotics upon the human system."

A Nebraska friend sends me the physiology and hygiene syllabus of the normal training high schools. The outline of the course is attached to this. The teachers are indeed positing: "I say the courses of study for high school teachers in Nebraska would be well enough for professors in the medical colleges and universities."

The syllabus includes the familiar old tables of average heights and weights for men and women at all ages, and a curious table giving the "average" normal systolic blood pressure for persons at various ages. Sil-lyly business, but we must remember the outlines of instruction are prepared by government authorities, and are generally a bit shy on health education themselves. If the Nebraska authorities are at all different from such authorities in other states, their official health education syllabus does not betray the difference.

(Copyright, 1931, for The Constitution.)

In Hollywood

BY MOLLIE MERRICK

(Copyright, 1931, for The Constitution by The North American Newspaper Alliance.)
HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Jan. 5.—It wasn't blue Monday yesterday. With two of the largest studios in Hollywood resuming operations after four days of shut-down, there has been a ripple of energy and activity running across the face of the village.
So, smiles and some bustling of shoppers under the stars and stripes didn't bring. This doesn't mean that for actors who have been out of jobs. It doesn't mean that extra and bit players will now get the five or seven-and-a-half an hour occasional day of employment.

It means that a great army of technical workers attached to the studios will have a day of earning their daily bread. It means that people who work in patient-eyed, quiet and unobtrusive way in the developing the film taken during the day, will be on the job again.
The sound technicians and electricians and propmen, the thousand and one people behind the scenes of this flamboyant industry—have been waiting to carry life on in one of the worst financial years in the history of the movies.

Hollywood is made up of more than Beverly Hills mansions and picture-studio flats. There is something about the life of the industry, and the life of the people who live in the one-inch strip, or magnificently to the size of a picture postcard as they are flashed into the little machine that cutters use.
Jack Warner said this year that there would be no more shutdowns for his studio. That work would be so arranged that the lot would move on a 12-hour basis. He is accomplishing this, he will contribute a small amount to humanity—local humanity.

No, Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford are not being divorced. Of course the old rumor sprang again because Douglas started a divorce suit when Mary is still making
"Nini."

The peace in the house of Fairbanks would seem to be a relief. But and perhaps Mary and Doug will both be far more interesting for breaking their somewhat naive railing of never being separated for instance, by which they lived during the first decade of their marriage.

Taxing Upheld.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—(AP)—The government succeeded in the supreme court today in its effort to tax the Saxford and Brooks Company of Baltimore, on approximately $200,000 the company recovered for losses on a Delaware river dredging contract awarded the Atlantic Dredging company.

LOOKING AND LISTENING

BY SAM W. SMALL

Observations Made in the National Capital During the Holidays.

"You never can tell" is about as true as any other gospel you can mention. I went away before Christmas hoping to spend two happy weeks over the holidays at my country home in Virginia, opposite Washington city, with my grandchildren and appliances, a Washington resident afflicted by a severe case of laryngitis, which developed into a case of pleurisy or pneumonia. I put in the holidays fighting the things off, and am tasting now the happiness of being back on the job.

Washington is a washout.
During the year-end holidays Washington city is very much of a washout. The natives and can't-get-aways follow the orthodox holiday customs, and, except for modern appearances
and appliances, a Washington resident afflicted by a severe case of laryngitis, which developed into
a case of pleurisy or pneumonia. I put in the holidays fighting the
things off, and am tasting now the
happiness of being back on the job.

The Political Air Is Murky.
As far as I was able to consult with those who usually know the condition of politics in that noisy city, the atmosphere murky and full of floating preparation marks.
No one seemed prepared to prophesy the results of that noisy city, the congress will be in session.
The president, least of all, is clear as to what he may expect to get out of congress or that congress will put upon him.

Nor do the leaders of either party make any certain predictions. All they are sure of is that nearly every member of congress is hungry to get propositions for a score of schemes of called "relief" for their constituents, whether they need it or not.

The Raiders Are Riding Hard.

The latest craze that appears to be taken hold of congressional body is to raid the treasury—even to the extent of all the money in it, and then for $4,000,000,000 of bonds to pay the interest on the new bonds and $5,000,000,000 more bonds for public roads and other constructions.

The cry is "mortgage the future" to fill the pockets and bellies of the people, and let the generations unborn wrestle with the problem of paying the bill. This may be good national finance, but it is certainly the sure way to build up a perpetual and oppressive public debt.

Records at police station show that
during the month of December, 1930,
there were 267 automobile accidents
within the borough limits, compared to 272 for December, 1929.

GOVERNOR MAKES 4 MAJOR CHANGES IN PROCLAMATION

Continued from First Page.

of the matter of providing payment for the expenses of traveling to and from the capitol for members of the legislature, which was highly important, regarded as a probable piece of supererogation.
The call "enlarged, clarified and amplified," as Attorney General Napier advised might be done, and with presiding officers of both houses ready to see that all was in order for the special session, the government were ready to begin this morning the job of finding the $6,200,000 in addition, they are empowered to create a tax on the sale of automobiles to adopt an executive budget "for more thorough control of finances of the state, and to confirm appointments made by the governor in the last regular session. Chief of these is the nomination of Captain J. W. Barnett as chairman of the state highway board.

Joint Session Today.

Gavels in both houses will be banded this morning by Speaker—also Governor-elect—Richard B. Russell.
The house will convene at 10 o'clock in the upper chamber by W. Cecil Neill, of Columbia, president of the senate. At 11 o'clock there will be a joint session when Governor-elect will personally deliver a 30-page message touching in detail upon the state's financial problem and containing his suggestions for remedying the situation.
The senate will convene at 10 o'clock in the lower chamber, where the members of the ways and means committee Monday, work on an act which has been introduced which places a 10 per cent tax on all theater and football admissions and a tax of one cent on each drink sold in the state. This measure probably will be offered by Chairman J. W. Culpepper for the ways and means committee. It is thought to reach the hopper probably today.

Members of the ways and means committee who thrashed out the subject of amending the call to the governor late Monday night: Chairman
Culpepper, Howell, Cook, of Bulloch;
W. H. Key, of Jasper; Ernest Davis, of Wilkes; and J. B. McPherson, of Wilkes; R. F. Burch, of Dodge; J. Comer Trapnell, of Candler; and J. H. Cramer, of Jeff Davis county.

Amended Proclamation.
The full text of the amended proclamation reads:
"Where, I, L. G. Hardman, governor of Georgia, did on the 23d day of December, 1929, issue a proclamation, in which I directed the governor extraordinary session, and it has since been deemed expedient to enlarge, clarify and amplify the purposes and objects of said call;
"Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in me by Article V, Section 1, Paragraph 13, of the constitution of Georgia, I, Lamartine G.
Hardman, governor, do hereby convoke the general assembly of the state in extraordinary session, to meet in their regular session on the 6th day of January,
A. D. 1931, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the following purposes and objects, all of which are considered by me to be of sufficient importance to make the necessity for such extraordinary session:

"For the payment of all unpaid appropriations made by the general assembly in the years nineteen twenty-seven and nineteen twenty-nine (1927 and 1929) for the purpose of providing revenue for the future support of state government and the expenses of the operation of same."
"To consider and to take appropriate action for the creation of a state tax commission, and to define the powers and the duties thereof, and to vest in said commission the collection of the revenues of the state;
"To make more adequate provision for the housing maintenance and working of persons convicted of crime in this state;
"To consider an appropriation

WAR DEPARTMENT ASKS FUND OF $446,024,000

Annual Supply Bill Includes Much Money To Be Spent in South.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—(AP)—An appropriation of $446,024,000 was allowed the war department for maintenance of the army and prosecution of waterway projects next fiscal year in the annual supply bill received today by the house.

The military activities drew $334,- 956,000, including $134,664,000 for pay, while engineering activities received $111,067,000, of which $80,- 000,000 was designated for rivers and harbors, $35,000,000 for flood control on the Mississippi and $1,000,- 000 for Sacramento river flood control.

Housing construction and army air corps construction provided for under the bill include the following allotments:
Fort Benning, Ga., $1,000,000; Fort Bragg, N. C., $800,000; Fort Humphreys, N. C., $140,000; Langley Field, Virginia, $2,261,520; Maxwell Field,
Alabama, $345,000; Camp McClellan,
Ala., $45,000; Fort Monroe, Va., $46,- 600; Fort Myer, Va., $218,940; Shreveport, La., $2,641,000.

For the Chickamauga and Chattanoogie parks, Tenn., $600,000; the Fort Donelson park, Tenn., $7,320;
for the Guilford Courthouse park, N. C., $8,390; for Moore's Creek park, N. C.,
$2,150; for the Fort Mifflin park, Pa.,
$5,000; for Shiloh park, Tenn., $90,120, including $50,000 to complete the Shiloh-Corinth road; for the Riverbank park, Tenn., $81,000; Vicksburg park, Miss., $53,280, including $30,000 for improving roads;
for Appomattox Courthouse Monument, Va., $25,000; for survey of battlegrounds, $6,300.

82 Killed, 50 Missing
In Philippine Typhoon

MANILA, Jan. 5.—(AP)—With 82 dead and 50 missing, fears were felt tonight of even greater loss in the typhoon which roared across the central Philippine islands last week-end.
Wires were prostrated and roads blocked, but belated reports indicated that the toll of casualties probably would be lengthened with restoration of communication.

A large number of native fishermen perished in the sinking of many small boats off the coasts of Leyte and Cebu islands. Property damage on those islands aggregated more than $750,- 000.

Further reports, it was feared, would bring details similar to the great storms on Leyte island, when 234 persons died, and 234 persons died, and May, 1929, with 119 deaths.

Records at police station show that
during the month of December, 1930,
there were 267 automobile accidents
within the borough limits, compared
to 272 for December, 1929.

PACKERS GIVEN WIDER FIELDS

Continued from First Page.

where the decree was upheld. Armour & Co. and Swift & Co. then began an effort to have the district supreme court modify the decree. Cudahy and Wilson did not take an active part in the litigation but the lifting of the restrictions applies also to them. The decree merged some years ago with the Armour decree.

The decision was regarded by officials of Armour and Swift as an encouraging step to contribute to the modifying of the decree. The trend of reducing distribution costs.

Both F. Edison White, president of Armour and Louis F. Swift, president of Swift & Co., in Chicago, said they looked upon the decision as beneficial to the public as well as their companies.

There was no indication of the course the government would take but active dissatisfaction with the decision was expressed by J. H. McLarin, president of the American Wholesale Grocers' Association. This organization and the National Wholesale Grocers' Association had intervened in opposition to modifying the decree.

McLarin said the modification
"not prevent the packers from dominating the business, making it hard, not only on wholesale grocers, but on canners, retail grocers, meat dealers and consumers."

FIGHT TO BE CARRIED TO U. S. SUPREME COURT.

The American Wholesale Grocers' Association will carry its fight to keep the Swift and Armour meat packing companies out of the wholesale grocery business, it was announced Monday by the Atlanta law firm of Watkins, Ashill & Watkins, counsel for the grocers.

Death Sentence Upheld.

DENVER, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Three bank robbers, sentenced to be hanged last week ending January 31, lost their appeal to the state supreme court today. The court affirmed the sentences.

For the purpose of paying for advertising of constitutional amendments as provided by acts of the general assembly in 1929, for which no provision was made.

"6. To amend appropriation act of 1929 relative to Confederate veterans' pensions, so that the payment of Confederate veterans so that the appropriation bill will conform to pension act of 1929.

"7. To consider executive appointments subject to confirmation by the senate.

"8. To provide taxation and regulation of motor vehicles operated for hire over the highways of Georgia;
"9. To make appropriation of excessive money for the payment of expenses of the extraordinary session.

"Given under my hand and the great seal of the state at the capitol in city of Atlanta, this fifth day of January, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and thirty-one.
"L. G. HARDMAN, Governor."

Text of Original Call.

The call originally provided for and read:
"For the purpose of providing revenue for payment of all excessive unpaid appropriations made by the legislature in 1927 and 1929."

"3. To create a state tax commission and define the duties and powers thereof.

"4. To make provision for the care of convicts who will be turned over to the prison commission without any buildings or provisions for them.

"5. To consider an appropriation for the purpose of paying for the advertising of constitutional amendments provided by acts of the general assembly in 1929.

The Other Fellow's Driving Seems Wrong If You Are Used To Holding the Wheel

By Robert Quillen

If you would learn why many experiments fail, discover why one succeeds, if you would learn why one bush is sick and barren and a tenth is healthy and prolific, you needn't hunt further for an explanation when you discover that the tenth was sprayed and the others were not.

Or if ten gardeners have been equally and uniformly successful and a few of them begin to fail more often than they succeed, you are safe in assuming that the few have changed their methods.

Find a home in which the husband is reasonably decent and the wife a woman of the type commonly described as old-fashioned and you have found a successful marriage.

Find a home where husband and wife live unhappily on the verge
of

Employment Relief Offices Opened by Local Committee

"Better Business" Commission Inaugurates Service in Co-operation With President Hoover's Relief Organization.

Opening of emergency employment and relief headquarters by the Atlanta Better Business commission in co-operation with President Hoover's emergency employment relief committee, Monday marked the latest step in Atlanta's organized aid.

Frank H. Neely, chairman of the Atlanta commission, stated at the opening of the offices Monday that everything would be done to relieve the unemployed in this city. The organization is not prepared to concern itself with persons coming into Atlanta from other cities as it has established headquarters to take care only of the local unemployed and their needs, Mr. Neely said. The headquarters are on the second floor of the Woolford building, 85 Poplar street, opposite the postoffice, telephone Walnut 3213.

The statement Monday by the commission, pointed out that the usually augmented unemployment that follows post-Christmas holiday seasons has had the effect of raising the unemployment figure well above the normal.

Suffering in Atlanta.

"Although, as William Lyons Phelps says, Georgia is singularly fortunate in being an agricultural state where people on the farms can find fuel in the fields and raise produce for their own and stock consumption, Atlanta herself is far from agricultural and is an industrial distributing and transportation center, where all three functions are suffering from the effects of the international situation," the statement set forth.

"It therefore behooves all of us with incomes, either from salaries or investments, to look about and take stock of our comforts and determine how we can serve those who are not so fortunate at the present."

How Citizens May Aid.

The statement continues to point out how Atlanta citizens and concerns may be of specific aid in helping its commission cope with the present situation:

"C. C. Dobbs is chairman of the relief committee. Send him your check, any amount that may prompt you, exclusively for the alleviation of suffering caused by the present situation. By co-operation with the Community Chest and other social agencies, the committee will see that there is no duplication, no service rendered that ought to come naturally under the work of the chest agencies, or

"B.C." Will Stop Periodical Pains In Three Minutes

Month after month some women still suffer needless pain, but those who know simply go to a drug store or soda fountain, get a package of "B.C." and get perfect relief in 3 minutes, continuing their duties in pain-free, easy comfort.

"B.C." is the formula of two North Carolina druggists combining several ingredients that function together for the relief of headache, neuralgia and periodical pains, accomplishing in a few minutes what perfect relief formula can do under 1 to 3 hours.

"B.C." stops the pain, quiets the nerves, is perfectly harmless. No other preparation like it. Nothing else gives such profound relief. Ask your druggist, he knows. (adv.)

Demand
A-PAX
Hygiene
Towels and Toilet Tissues
Prevent Contagious Diseases Spreading in Schools, Factories and Homes

Apply This Once And Kill the Itch

A new preparation known as "Siti-icide," being a liquid, thoroughly penetrates the skin, going into every pore, crevice and wrinkle where parasites hide, and kill every one of these parasites with one application, in thirty minutes.

Siti-icide is immediately effective in destroying parasitic itch (scabies) and is sold by all druggists at 60c, or sent direct upon receipt of price. Siti-icide Co., Inc., Commerce, Ga. (adv.)

BUISST'S SEEDS
DEPENDABLE FOR 10 YEARS—Grape Cane and Catalog
MAILED FREE on Request
100 FLOWER SEEDS WITH EVERY ORDER
ROBERT BUISST COMPANY
DEPARTMENT 14—3000 WEST 10TH ST., OKLA.

Ease in 5 Minutes—Comfort in 5 Hours

Don't neglect your child's COUGH or COLD

TRY this milder "counter-irritant."

Good old Musterole now made milder for babies and small children. So pleasant to use and so reliable—apply Children's Musterole freely to the affected area once every hour for five hours. That's the safe, sure treatment that millions of mothers and leading doctors and nurses recognize and endorse.

Musterole gets action because it is a "counter-irritant"—not just a salve—it penetrates and stimulates blood circulation, helps to draw out infection and pain.

That's why this famous blend of oil of mustard, camphor, menthol and other helpful ingredients brings relief naturally. Keep full strength Musterole on hand for adults and Children's Musterole for the little tots.

CHILDREN'S MUSTEROLE
BETTER THAN A MUSTARD PLASTER
MILD

Cone Hears 24 Cases On First Day as Jurist

John L. Cone, former borough paymaster, Monday afternoon assumed his duties as recorder in the second division of police court, succeeding Murphy M. Holloway. Of the 24 cases he heard during his initial session the most important was that of Howard Johnson, a youth, who pleaded guilty to charges of burglary, safe-blowing and robbery, and was ordered held for the grand jury in $10,000. Since his arrest more than a week ago the prisoner also was suspected of complicity in two attempted deliveries at the city jail.

In 13 other cases heard Recorder Cone imposed fines ranging from $5 to $10. Three persons drew fines suspended on good behavior, three forfeited cash collaterals by non-appearance, and three cases were dismissed. C. O. Murphy, son of Alderman J. C. Murphy, newly-appointed clerk of the court, was present.

coming there will be placed under the proper authorities.

Kendall Weisger is chairman of the special jobs committee. Your co-operation is essential in this work for it depends upon the community. There is not a household in Atlanta but who has some piece of work about the house that is being held over for spring renovation. Now is the time that the work is needed, now, by employing a gardener, a housecleaner, painter, plasterer, carpenter, electrician, we may have the job done with a sense of our own well being and that of our fellow man.

LANE DRUG STORES ELEVATE A. R. MUNN

Election of A. R. Munn as chairman of the board of directors of the Lane Drug Company was announced Monday, and Roy N. Chelt, of Jacksonville, Fla., formerly vice president of the company, was elected to the vacancy caused by the elevation of Mr. Munn.

John B. Rowen, formerly connected with People's Drug Stores, of Washington, D. C., was elected vice president and general purchasing agent of the company, succeeding Thomas C. Cox, resigned. The changes became effective on the date of the announcement.

TRIAL OF HEWELL WILL OPEN TODAY

Patrolman Odus Hewell, veteran member of the Atlanta police department, will go on trial before a jury in Judge E. D. Thomas' division of the Fulton superior court today on a charge of murder, the accusation growing out of the death of Jake Minsk, Decatur street butcher, shot in his shop several months ago when Hewell went there to arrest him on complaint of his brother.

Hewell is expected to plead self-defense, claiming that the butcher came at him with a knife.

The patrolman, who has been free under bond, was suspended by the police committee of council last month when he entered a plea of guilty to drunkenness.

Assistant Solicitor-General Ed A. Stephens and John H. Hudson will handle the prosecution.

MEMPHIS LENDERS PAY "SHARK" FINES

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Jan. 5.—(AP)—Three money lenders, one of them a woman, pleaded guilty in circuit court today to charges of violating the state small loan act and were fined.

Mrs. Pauline Bushnell was fined $50 and costs. Two men were fined $100 each.

Twenty-three of 31 persons indicted in a drive against alleged "loan sharks" have pleaded guilty. Five left the city and three others were convicted despite not guilty pleas.

CRISP POWER CASE DEBATE DECLINED

P. S. Arkwright, president of the Georgia Power Company, Monday reconsidered his acceptance to debate the Crisp power situation before the Atlanta Forum Association on January 18 and notified Mercer G. Evans, head of the association, that he would not appear before it.

Mr. Arkwright gave as his reasons for declining the fact that the supreme court of Georgia now has a case before it growing out of the power situation in Crisp county, a case in which the Georgia Power Company is interested, and also because of his unfamiliarity of the practical workings of the Crisp experiment.

The power company executive thanked the association for the invitation but declared he believed no good purpose could be served by his participation in the discussion.

ALPINE AVALANCHES KILL 11 FRENCHMEN

GRENOBLE, France, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Alpine avalanches near here took a toll of 11 lives over the week-end.

Six Frenchmen died as they were engulfed in an Alps pass at the Franco-Italian frontier not far from Briancon.

Near Montiers four young skiers from Paris vanished in attempting to climb to Croix des Frettes pass, 8,800 feet high.

Two Paris students, Robert Jones and Robert Mink, were sking at the height of 8,000 feet near Abriers when they were caught in an avalanche. Jones extricated himself, but his friend was buried under many feet of snow.

LEAVE PROTEST LANDS BRITISH TARS IN JAIL

PLYMOUTH, England, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Thirty members of the crew of H. M. S. Lucia, submarine depot ship, were "lodged in naval barracks" today after what is believed to have been a demonstration in protest against curtailed Christmas leaves.

While an investigation by the admiralty was under way the 30 crew members were replaced so that the Lucia might join the Atlantic fleet maneuvers. Officers of the ship and of the Deconport naval station would make no comment regarding the affair other than that it was not a mutiny.

SIX HIGH-ROADS TO SAVINGS--AT HIGH'S!

We're Clearing Out--at Half!

WINTER COATS

In Two Low-
Priced Groups!

$49.95 Coats
REDUCED TO $24.94

$69.50 Coats
REDUCED TO $34.94

They're this season's models! Beautifully executed in rich fabrics... broadcloth, trico, imperata and others! Richly and becomingly furred in smart flat and soft long-haired pelts! Broken sizes in all colors.

COATS--HIGH'S SECOND FLOOR

We're Clearing Out--at Half!

WINTER DRESSES

In Two Low-
Priced Groups!

$15 Dresses
REDUCED TO $7.50

$18 Dresses
REDUCED TO $9.00

Frocks for every occasion right now... and into the spring! Silks and woolens, in brilliant high shades and darker tones. Broken sizes, but all sizes in the lot. These are the best buys of the season... exactly half their former prices!

DRESSES--HIGH'S SECOND FLOOR

Feature Values from High's Annual JANUARY SILK SALE

$1.19 to $1.59 Silks

$1.59 All Silk Flat Crepes, 40 in.

$1.19 All Silk Blue Edge Honan

Pongee

$1.19 All Rayon Slip Satin, 40 in.

$1.19 Rayon Flat Crepe, Plain

All Silk Flat Crepes, Newest Colors

Beautiful silks in the brilliant new shades and the smartest prints for spring. Fashion your own lovely frocks at this saving.

Regular $2.00 Silks

New printed flat crepes in small all-over and the new wide spaced designs.

Silks of fine quality and rich beauty that are worth dollars more.....

$1.49 Rayon Print Flat Crepes

Delightfully new and refreshing patterns in the smartest spring colors. Printed. Real bargains for women who are clever with their needles! Yard..

95c

Brilliant Shades
Gorgeous Designs
Beautiful Quality

SILK STORE--HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

"Best Sellers" from High's Famous

JANUARY WHITE SALE

Puritan Sheets and Cases

"MADE IN GEORGIA" OF GEORGIA COTTON

81x90 Puritan Sheets, each$1.00

81x99 Puritan Sheets, each$1.00

81x108 Puritan Sheets, each$1.00

63x90 Puritan Sheets, each85c

42x36-inch Puritan Cases, each24c

39c White Broadcloth

Wonderful value here for smart southern wear! Good quality white broadcloth, priced at 25c

Fancy Linens, 20% to 50% Off

$2 Linen Crash Lunch Sets, $1.49

$1.98 Krinkle Cotton Spreads, each$1.49

$1.00 81x105 Spreads, each79c

$2.50 Rayon Spreads, each$1.94

$4.95 Rayon Spreads$2.98

18-in. All-Linen Napkins, 6 for$1.39

14-in. All-Linen Napkins, 6 for89c

18-in. Linfeed Cotton Napkins, doz. $1.49

LINENS--HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

Today---The Very Youngest Set Scores! Baby Day at High's

$1.25 Handmade Dresses

Of sheer, soft materials, beautifully hand-embroidered in dainty shades. For baby boys and girls. Infants' to 2-year sizes. 88c

89c Handmade Dresses

and Gertrudes. Made of sheer quality batiste, hand-embroidered and scalloped. Infants' to 2-year sizes. 50c

Gowns-Kimonos-Gertrudes

In attractive shades of pink and blue. Also in white. Soft, warm and fleecy. Special at 50c

$1 Silk and Wool Shirts

Quaint, smart little double-breasted styles in warm silk and wool. Sizes 1 to 4 years. 50c

Wool Sacques and Bootees50c

$1.98 Wool Sweaters, 2 to 6$1.00

$1.98 30x30-in. Diapers$1.00

$1.50 Tip-toe Blankets$1.00

Rubber Feeding Bibs19c and 29c

79c Rubber Sheets, large50c

Infants' Crib Pads, small49c

Infants' Crib Pads, large89c

$3.25 Ivory Baby Crib$2.98

$4.98 High Chairs, green, ivory$3.98

Many Other Items of Interest... at Low Prices!

J. M. HIGH CO.

48 Years a "Modern" Store

BABY WEAR--HIGH'S THIRD FLOOR

Now is the Time to Re-Shape Your Home! Special Purchase! Shades

Made-to-order window shades for any home or apartment containing six or more windows. Up to and including shades 54 inches wide and 7 feet long! Heavy quality oil opaque cloth, mounted on guaranteed rollers complete with fixtures! Bring us your measurements! This offer for a limited time only.

$1.00
Each

Small Additional Charge for Installation!

$32.50 and $39.50 Axminster and Velvet Rugs
$26.95

They're new! A special purchase of 35 rugs in semi-modern and hooked rug designs. The colorings are the same you find in much higher priced rugs. All perfect quality rugs. Size 9x12 feet.

DRAPERIES AND RUGS--HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

PROBE OF BUS LINE LEGISLATION HINTED

Senator Myrick Says He Believes Laws Not Properly Administered.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Jan. 5.—(P)—Shelby Myrick, first district senator, said here tonight on eve of his departure for the extraordinary session of the general assembly that he believed "laws regulating operation of bus lines in Georgia are not being properly administered."

"The probabilities are," he said, "I will propose a resolution in the senate immediately to require the public service commission to report what steps it has taken to enforce the motor bus regulation law, as well as a resolution calling upon the comptroller general to report what amount of taxes has been collected in the last year and half from motor bus carriers."

"It may be that the motor bus act will need amending so as to strengthen the arms of the public service commission and it may be likewise necessary to amend further the law imposing taxes on motor buses. These subjects can be handled at the extra session, providing there is sufficient time, because they will within provisions of the call."

"If by reason of limited time and press of other matters this subject cannot be handled properly at the extra session, I feel quite sure the Chattanooga delegation will continue the fight when the regular session convenes in June."

Named Deputy Sheriff.
VALDOSTA, Ga., Jan. 5.—(P)—J. B. McDonald, formerly a member of the Valdosta police department, has become chief deputy sheriff under Sheriff J. L. Spivey.

ERLANGER
3 DAYS THURS. JAN. 8
BARGAIN MATINEE SATURDAY PERSONAL APPEARANCE OF TWO GREAT STARS IN A STAGE PLAY OF MERIT

VILMA AND ROD LA BANKY
CHERRIES ARE RIPE

PRICES
NIGHTS $20, $10, $5, $2.50
MATINEES $10, $5, $2.50
SEATS NOW ON SALE
BOX OFFICE OPEN 10 A. M. TO 8 P. M.

Grand
NOW PLAYING
ZIEGLER'S STAR COMEDIAN
EDDIE CANTOR IN
"WHOOPEE!"
FASTEST STARTING COMEDY!
Girls as Only Ziegler Can Pick Them!

25c
11 to 1 Daily
(Sat. 35c) NOW!

RUTH CHATTERTON
IN
THE RIGHT TO LOVE
The first lady of the screen in her greatest role!

VAUDEVILLE
POP CAMERON
AND GANG
LIKE FATHER-LIKE SON
THE BERKOWITZ
DON GALVAN
and His Band
ARCHIE and NEWMAN
DUCTIONS

KEITH'S GEORGIA
KEITH ORPHEUM VAUDEVILLE
Starting Sat. Richard Dix in "The Last"

25c
11 to 1 Daily
(Sat. 35c) NOW!

Paramount
THEATRE
25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

Georgia News Told in Brief

Arrived and Sailed.
SAVANNAH, Ga., Jan. 5.—(P)—Arrived: Fairfax, Jacksonville; Knoxville City, Calcutta; G. T. Waring, Baytown.
Sailed: Fairfax, Baltimore; City of Chattanooga, Boston via New York.

Family Poisoned.
BARNESVILLE, Ga., Jan. 5.—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bennett and their three children were critically ill at their home near Barnesville Saturday when Mrs. J. W. Bennett mistook calcium arsenic for flour, and added it to some biscuit dough. All are recovering.

Hatching Season to Open.
BAINBRIDGE, Ga., Jan. 5.—C. Lane, owner and manager of the Decatur County Hatchery here, will start the new chick hatching season on January 12.

Bible Class to Meet.
BARNESVILLE, Ga., Jan. 5.—The regular monthly business and social meeting of the Young Woman's Wesleyan Bible Class of the Methodist church in Barnesville will be held at the home of Mrs. G. R. Moore on Forsyth street, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. Moore, Mrs. C. O. Sims, Mrs. George Coppedge, Mrs. Marnon Howard and Mrs. Hamp Smith.

B. Y. P. U. Election.
FAVOR, Ga., Jan. 5.—Members of the B. Y. P. U. of the Baptist church in Favo have elected officers for the year as follows: Randall Parrish, president; J. W. Adams, vice president; Question, Thos. W. Adams; Secretary: Ruby Matthews, corresponding secretary; Mary Nelen, captain of Group No. 1; Grace Durham, captain of Group No. 2.

No Sale Held.
STATESBORO, Ga., Jan. 5.—Four cartons of eggs were sold at a co-operative sale held at the Central of Georgia pen. About $8,000 pounds was sold bringing approximately $5,000.

Methodist Conference Held.
BARNESVILLE, Ga., Jan. 5.—A quarterly conference was held at the Methodist church here Sunday afternoon with Dr. W. L. Duren, presiding elder of the Griffin district, presiding. Dr. Duren also preached.

WAR NURSE
with Robert Montgomery
FANCHON & MARCO'S IDEA
HOLLYWOOD COLLEGIANS
(Featuring)
THE "IT" BOYS OF MIRTH & MELODY

ENRICO LEIDE
CHARLEY CHASE COMEDY
"LOVE, LIES AND LULLABIES" MICKY MOUSE CARTOON
"GOODY GOODY"
OTHER JUNIOR FEATURES

JOAN CRAWFORD
"PAID"
JANUARY FESTIVAL OF HITS
OPEN 12:45 Children 10¢ Anytime

What a grand old singer he was!
Monday
Tuesday
Wednesday
Thursday
Friday
Saturday
Sunday

Geo. ARLISS
in
'Old English'
SMITH AND DALE
"Anything But Ham" Screen Songs—News

Paramount
THEATRE
25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

25c
11 to 1
THURSDAY
"The Life of the Party"
Starring
Wanda Gaster

at the regular Sunday evening service.
Dr. White To Teach.
VALDOSTA, Ga., Jan. 5.—Dr. Goodrich C. White, dean of the college of arts and sciences of Emory University, will teach in the Sunday school training school to be operated here, beginning March 1.

Released from Hospital.
VALDOSTA, Ga., Jan. 5.—Leonard A. Baldwin, Valdosta traveling man and century medical man, has been released from the Frank Bird hospital after treatment for a broken arm.

Commissioners to Meet.
SPARTA, Ga., Jan. 5.—The meeting of the board of commissioners of Hancock county will be held next Friday. The new board is composed of W. B. Harrison, R. C. Wiley and Frank H. Jackson.

MAN SHOT TO DEATH IN BEN HILL COUNTY

FITZGERALD, Ga., Jan. 5.—(P) Sheriff G. E. Ball Monday night announced the fatal shooting of Ed. Hayes, 30, while resisting attempts of officers to arrest him on charges of attacking a 12-year-old girl.

The sheriff said he did not know who shot Hayes. "We went after him but I don't know which of us shot him," he said. With the officer at the time were two of his deputies, Gordon Roberts and L. T. Myers.

Asked if they shot at the same time, Sheriff Ball said he had no further statement to make. He would not say he had fired his gun.

Hayes' parents were not available. It was not known here if anyone other than the officers saw the shooting, which occurred at the home of Hayes' parents about eight miles from here.

Hayes' parents were said to have been in the house at the time, but they had not been reached for a statement.

RAILROAD OFFICERS RENAMED AT MEETING

SAVANNAH, Ga., Jan. 5.—(P)—Re-election of officers and directors of the Augusta and Savannah railroad took place here Monday at the annual meeting of the stockholders.

An extra dividend of 25 cents per share was declared in addition to the regular semi-annual dividend of $2.50 per share.

The following are the officers: Charles Ellis, president; Byron Glover, vice president; J. Sullivan Bond, secretary and treasurer. The directors are Charles Ellis, A. R. Lawton, J. Byron Glover and J. Sullivan Bond, all of Savannah; Paul Mustin and O. Clinton Lee, of Augusta, and Robert C. Neely, Jr., of Waynesboro.

HINSON APPOINTED TO SUCCEED HIBBARD

MACON, Ga., Jan. 5.—(P)—E. C. Hinson, deputy U. S. marshal here, has been U. S. marshal for the middle district of Georgia, to the Albany division pending the appointment of a successor to C. E. Hibbard, who resigned some time ago after defections in his expense accounts had been discovered.

Mr. Hinson did not indicate just when the new appointment would be made. Mr. Hinson has been working in the Macon division for more than two years.

Hibbard resigned when special investigators from the department of justice discovered discrepancies in his expense account totaling approximately $500. The former officer admitted the charges, and said he had practiced padding his expense accounts for several years to offset items of expenditure which he could not "get through" in his regular reports.

AUGUSTA HOSPITAL BOARD ABOLISHED

AUGUSTA, Ga., Jan. 5.—(P)—City council Monday night abolished the self-perpetuating board of trustees of the University hospital.

A board consisting of the mayor, chairman of the finance committee, chairman of the health and hospital committee of council and three representative citizens will substitute for the self-perpetuating board.

The vote for the change was 12 to 2. Sponsors of the plan said it would mean better co-ordination between the hospital, the city and the medical college of the University of Georgia. The mayor was the only representative of the city on the old board of trustees.

R. L. STONE HEADS
BEN HILL BOARD

FITZGERALD, Ga., Jan. 5.—Ben Hill county's new board of commissioners has elected R. L. Stone chairman; Barry Clark, vice chairman; and Marvin Roberts, supervisor of roads and bridges; McDonald and McDonald were re-elected county attorneys and W. M. Rawlin, county clerk.

Dr. W. D. Dornier was re-elected county physician and F. R. Justice, collector of delinquent taxes while County Warden. G. Wells was recommended for a two-year term to succeed himself. The first Wednesday of each month was selected for their regular meetings.

BOARD REORGANIZES IN DECATUR COUNTY

BAINBRIDGE, Ga., Jan. 5.—At a meeting Monday of county commissioners, Perry Youmans was re-elected chairman of the board; Grady Bell, county attorney, and Dr. L. W. Willis, physician. Joe Dollar was made vice chairman and with Jess Tom Powers and Mr. Youmans was sworn in for a four-year term.

BELL MURDER TRIAL SCHEDULED TODAY

MACON, Ga., Jan. 5.—(P)—Deferred Monday over the protest of Wallace Miller, counsel for the defense, the trial of W. F. Bell, tourist car operator, on a charge of murder growing out of the death last August of R. B. Hendon, traveling salesman, is scheduled for early Tuesday.

Wind in Donelsonville Causes Heavy Damage

DONALSONVILLE, Ga., Jan. 5.—(P)—A tornado swept through this city and the neighboring community early Monday morning, injuring two negroes, and causing heavy damage to property. One of the negroes was blown from the house along with his bed in which he was sleeping.

The negro Baptist church was torn from its foundations. A cotton gin, on the west side of town, belonging to Jerold Dickerson, valued at $15,000, was wrenched partly loose from its concrete foundations and careened at a dangerous angle. A window was pulled out from its frame in the Methodist church. Three or four roofs were wrecked.

LEAF GROWERS MEET IN LAKELAND, METTER

Number of Contracts Signed for Sale of Tobacco Through Co-op Body.

LAKELAND, Ga., Jan. 5.—A number of tobacco growers of Lanier county, meeting here Monday, voiced their approval of the Georgia Tobacco Growers' Marketing Association and a number of contracts for sale of tobacco through the association were signed.

Those present said the meeting was attended by approximately 90 percent of tobacco growers of the county. A committee was appointed to co-operate with the state organization in completing signatures for the county. This committee is composed of W. L. Miller, chairman; T. C. Connett, federal lands board member; and Luther Bridges.

The meeting was one of the first of a series to be held in each county growing tobacco during the next several days.

The local meeting was sponsored by the Lanier county board of trade, of which L. Patton is president and Lon Burton is secretary. The meeting was presided over by Ed Rivers, who is one of seven executive committee members of the association.

In addition to an address by Mr. Rivers, Alex Sessions, chairman of the organization committee; Charles E. Hatt, federal lands board member; and others were on the program.

100 GROWERS ASSEMBLE IN METTER COURTHOUSE.

METTER, Ga., Jan. 5.—Tobacco growers, numbering approximately 100, met in Candler county court house Monday for the purpose of organizing a co-operative tobacco association to aid in the marketing of the product.

Officers named by the meeting included J. H. Glisson, president; Charles Emory Smith, vice president; H. A. Kennard, secretary. The election of officers was held for immediate organization.

C. G. Garner, of the marketing department of the State College of Agriculture, Athens, Ga., and William Collins and Charles B. Rogan, representing the federal farm board, and Homer S. Durden, state vice president of the proposed organization, were among the speakers.

Monday's meeting was the first of a series to be held in the Georgia counties for the purpose of perfecting a tobacco co-operative marketing association.

Visitors from out of the county included Colonel E. George Butler, representing the Savannah Board of Trade; Mr. Spivey, from Savannah; G. E. McWhorter, agricultural agent for the Central Georgia railway, and Colonel A. M. Deal, of Statesboro.

PRODUCE EXCHANGE PLANNED IN CORDELE

CORDELE, Ga., Jan. 5.—(P)—Plans have been announced here for the establishment of the Cordele Produce Exchange to handle produce brought here for sale. Warehouse facilities have been provided for and the Cordele Dispatch says "the new concern will be in position to add extra pay checks to the farmers and others."

The organization is the consolidation of the Cordele Pecan Company and W. R. Neal Company, formerly of Moultrie, Ga. Mr. Neal, a former resident of Cordele, has recently returned here and will manage the business. He has been engaged for the last six years in a similar business in Moultrie.

AMERICUS BUILDING PERMITS SHOW LOSS

AMERICUS, Ga., Jan. 5.—Building permits were issued in Americus during 1930 providing for the construction of six new buildings to cost a total of $13,350, and repairs during the year amounted to $25,912 on 37 buildings, according to figures in the annual report of J. B. Hayes, building inspector.

DODSON RE-ELECTED
BUCHANAN MAYOR

BUCHANAN, Ga., Jan. 5.—In the annual city election held here Gaines F. Dodson was re-elected mayor over W. M. Strickland by a majority of 14 votes. Members of the city council elected were M. S. Summerville, H. C. Edwards, J. L. Eaves and E. L. Davis. Nine men sought places on the council.

H. S. McCalman was re-elected without opposition as a member of the school board in the election, which was held Saturday.

EIGHT CONVENTIONS SET FOR WAYCROSS

WAYCROSS, Ga., Jan. 5.—Waycross has been selected as the 1931 convention city for eight important meetings, including Georgia State Fair Association, biennial county Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs, Georgia Knights Templars, Georgia Knights of Pythias, Georgia Pythian Sisters, group meeting Federal Farm Loan Bank, Georgia Funeral Directors, Georgia Presbyterian synod.

Haralson Legislator Stricken by Paralysis

BUCHANAN, Ga., Jan. 5.—Dr. J. F. Reid, member of the legislature from Haralson county, suffered a stroke of paralysis today as he was en route to the railroad station to board a train for Atlanta to attend the special session of the legislature.

He is under the care of physicians who said they expected he would be recovered sufficiently to attend the session some time next week.

State Deaths
And Funerals

JAKE PINKUSSEIN.
SAVANNAH, Ga., Jan. 5.—Funeral services for Jake Pinkussein, a leading citizen of Savannah, were held Monday from the Jewish temple. He was 75 years of age, and lived here all of his life. He was a brother of Mrs. H. Cronheim, of Atlanta.

WILLINGHAM-TIFT LUMBER COMPANY

866 Murphy
Ave., S. W.

Raymond
2400

For over a quarter of a century Willingham-Tift has been headquarters for lumber and millwork. We have the plant, organization, and facilities to meet the most exacting requirements. Prices on your next bill.

For over a quarter of a century Willingham-Tift has been headquarters for lumber and millwork. We have the plant, organization, and facilities to meet the most exacting requirements. Prices on your next bill.

Savannah Youths Ordained Episcopal Deacons

From left to right, David Cady Wright, Jr., Jack Walthour and John Wright, three young Savannah men, who Sunday night were ordained deacons in the Episcopal church by the Rt. Rev. F. F. Reese, bishop of Georgia. David and John Wright are both sons of the Rev. David Cady Wright, rector of Christ church in Savannah. Mr. Walthour is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Walthour.

WAYCROSS ROTARIANS PRESENTED CHARTER

WAYCROSS, Ga., Jan. 5.—Prominent Georgia Rotary officials and delegations from clubs in all parts of the state attended the installation of the Waycross Rotary Club here Monday night. The charter was presented in behalf of Rotary International by District Governor Thomas C. Law, of Atlanta. A banquet was held at the Hotel Wayne.

Among the prominent Georgians on the program were District Governor Law, Mr. T. Anderson, editor of The Macon Telegraph and president of the Macon Rotary Club; F. G. Doyle, president of the Savannah Rotary Club; J. B. Vaddill, of Albany; Ed Flinders, of Macon, both of whom have been instrumental in the formation of the Waycross club.

Dr. W. P. Davis was installed as the first president of the club. F. D. Aiken, Jr., as vice president, and J. Mack Barnes as secretary.

Guests on many occasions, Mrs. De Vaughn in 1921 was the winner of the southern contest and second place winner in the national audition conducted by the National Federation of Music Clubs in Boston.

RENEWED DEMAND FOR LUMBER SEEN

VALDOSTA, Ga., Jan. 5.—During the last days of December quite a number of sales of small quantities of lumber were made in the Valdosta territory.

The lumber manufacturing industry for several months has been only moderately active, most mills running just enough to keep their organizations intact. The demand for standing timber, which recently developed, is regarded as the harbinger of renewed activity in the demand for lumber.

LOWNDES ABOLISHES POLICE DEPARTMENT

VALDOSTA, Ga., Jan. 5.—Lowndes county has abolished the county police department. The new board of county commissioners decided that the department was an unnecessary expense and the step was taken in line with the board's pledge to reduce expenses to the lowest possible figure during the year.

Dr. P. C. Quarterman, for several years county physician, has been re-elected for 1931. Other employees of the county will be selected this week.

TIMBER ASSOCIATION TO HIRE PATROLMEN

NAHUNTA, Ga., Jan. 5.—The Brantley County Timber Protective Association has decided to employ four patrolmen for its organization lands totaling 60,000 acres, it is announced by C. B. Beale, district forester.

FOUR MEN ESCAPE
CLARKE COUNTY JAIL

ATHENS, Ga., Jan. 5.—(P)—Officers Monday were seeking four prisoners who escaped yesterday from the Clarke county jail.

Jim Smith, charged with kidnapping, was among the prisoners. Others are Robert Chazy, John Culbertson and J. W. Sorrells.

State Deaths
And Funerals

JAKE PINKUSSEIN.
SAVANNAH, Ga., Jan. 5.—Funeral services for Jake Pinkussein, a leading citizen of Savannah, were held Monday from the Jewish temple. He was 75 years of age, and lived here all of his life. He was a brother of Mrs. H. Cronheim, of Atlanta.

WILLINGHAM-TIFT
LUMBER COMPANY

866 Murphy
Ave., S. W.

Raymond
2400

For over a quarter of a century Willingham-Tift has been headquarters for lumber and millwork. We have the plant, organization, and facilities to meet the most exacting requirements. Prices on your next bill.

For over a quarter of a century Willingham-Tift has been headquarters for lumber and millwork. We have the plant, organization, and facilities to meet the most exacting requirements. Prices on your next bill.

For over a quarter of a century Willingham-Tift has been headquarters for lumber and millwork. We have the plant, organization, and facilities to meet the most exacting requirements. Prices on your next bill.

For over a quarter of a century Willingham-Tift has been headquarters for lumber and millwork. We have the plant, organization, and facilities to meet the most exacting requirements. Prices on your next bill.

For over a quarter of a century Willingham-Tift has been headquarters for lumber and millwork.

Ed Danforth, Sports Editor
Ralph McGill
Clarence Nixon
Herb Clark
Walter Trumbull
Roy E. White

SPORTS SECTION

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION

ATLANTA, GA., TUESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 6, 1931.

Grantland Rice
W. O. McGeehan
Dan McGugin
Howard Jones
Bill Roper
Bob Zuppke

PAGE NINE

Mobile Deal Fails as Little Rock Is Assured of Club and Park

Chicago Promoters Battle New York for Stribling-Schmeling Bout

TUSCALOOSA, Ala., Jan. 5.—Yelling students tugging at tow ropes like so many Volga boatmen on a spree dragged old-fashioned spring wagons through the streets of Tuscaloosa this morning. Standing in the wagons were the heroes of the Rose Bowl, the Crimson Tidesmen, whose exploits New Year's Day had startled the football world.

In one wagon two chairs were placed. Dr. George (Mike) Denny, president of the university, overcoat thrown over his shoulders in characteristic fashion (he never puts his arms in the sleeves), sat smiling with the savior faire of a man used to great achievements and the plaudits of the public.

Wallace Wade, his sharply drawn face set as for an ordeal, his lips tightened in a thin line that bespoke discomfort, sat beside the executive.

Coach Wade had taught the big boys football and had guided them through a tempestuous season at home and across the continent to the biggest victory of all. Yet all the stress and strain that led up to the defeat of the Pacific coast champions was not so great as the burden of the reception given him and his team by 2,000 wild students.

CROWDS—AND WOLVES.

Coach Wade is terrified by a crowd when that crowd is centering its attention on him. He showed that last night at Mobile. When the Rose Bowl special passed through and paused at the station, six or seven hundred people and a banging drum corps were there. Such a turnout at 11 o'clock at night was significant of the pride Alabama has in the feats of the Red Elephants.

The players and other officials tumbled out and gaily returned the raucous salutes of the mob. But when they shouted for Coach Wade fear clutched at him; his face blanched and he fled to the interior of the car.

This modesty of Coach Wade's is an acute reaction that is unusual in a man who can dominate a football practice field like an old-fashioned schoolmaster. A crowd calling his name might be a pack of wolves.

THE DOOMED RIDES.

So through the streets of Tuscaloosa in the chill of a damp, grey morning the man Wade rode as did the aristocrats of France in tumblers toward the guillotine.

At the campus, around the mound that is used for such purposes, there were speeches and cheers and band music.

An hour later the burly men who had shattered the legions of the Pacific northwest in a terrific, glorious gridiron offensive were sitting in class rooms hoping they would not be called on to answer questions. Thirteen of them are seniors. They are ex-Alabama stars. The war is over.

"WADE TO THOMAS."

Wallace Wade has all but finished his career at Tuscaloosa. A few details of business remain to be cleared up and he will leave to assume charge of the gridiron fortunes of Duke University.

Frank Thomas already is head football coach and will start his spring practice the last week in January. Henry Crisp is the new athletic director. Jess Neely and Shorty Propst, Wade's other assistants, have been offered positions by Coach Thomas, it is understood, but whether they will accept or not has not been learned.

GREAT TASK WELL DONE.

It was a great trip. A football team with all its impedimenta and a party of over 100 alumni and friends of the university were moved across the continent and back again.

Arrangements were in the hands of Jeff Coleman, business manager of the athletic association, and Hank Crisp. They proved capable executives. Such a mass movement is a monstrous job. And the football team won as in a story book.

NOTES OF DISCORD.

The only discordant notes are that 13 as fine young men as ever represented a southern university on the football field have hung up their uniforms forever.

And the coach is leaving for another college, due, perhaps, to the folly of an alumni faction and university officials in failing to appreciate the gridiron genius they had in their front yard.

And tomorrow Alabama begins another football season under a new and thoroughly capable head coach with a sturdy, talented group of men as a nucleus for another fine team. Prospects are bright for the Crimson and White from now on. Few universities have been so favored in football in the past and have such shining promise of continuing in the front rank of the Southern conference.

TECH HIGH GRID PREP QUINTETS AWARDS MADE SPEED PRACTICE

Gold footballs, sweaters and letters were presented to members of Tech High's city championship football team, at a meeting of the team and athletic committee Monday, at the Henry Grady school on Parkway drive.

Election of a captain and alternate for the 1931 season was deferred until later in the week, when another meeting is slated.

Only those players who participated in the Boys' High game and who were outstanding in the other games of the season were presented with gold footballs. Twenty-three players received sweaters and 34 players, three managers, and a cheer leader were awarded letters for the past season.

Will Crankshaw, a Tech High alumnus and manager of the Emblem Shop, donated the footballs to the championship team.

Those players who received the footballs include Captain Morris. Alter-

TRAVELER CLUB GRANTED LEASE; DOUGLAS FAILS

Directors To Meet Thursday; Hope Bear Deal Will Be Completed.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Jan. 5.—(AP)—The tangled baseball situation in one Southern Association city—Little Rock—was adjusted tonight but struck a snag in another, Mobile.

Almost simultaneously with news from Little Rock that a group of businessmen had taken over the Traveler stock and that the Little Rock school board had removed a stumbling block by granting a civic committee use of Kavanaugh field as a baseball field for another year, Byrd Douglas, of Nashville notified John D. Martin, league president, that it would not be possible for him to exercise before midnight tonight the option he held for purchase of the Mobile club.

Under an arrangement made at a recent meeting of league directors groups endeavoring to take over the franchises in Mobile and Little Rock were given until tonight to adjust matters under options they held for purchase of majority stockholdings of the two clubs.

In view of the failure of the negotiations for taking over the Mobile majority holdings within the time limit, Mr. Martin announced that the league directors would meet Thursday to grapple with the situation again.

It was understood here, however, that while the deal for the Mobile club stock could not be concluded tonight there still remained a chance that before the meeting is held Thursday an agreement may be reached.

H. Brady Manning, head of the Little Rock civic committee, formally notified Mr. Martin of the action taken by the school board and the league president that the option held for the purchase of the club from R. G. Allen, present owner, had been exercised.

Little Rock Assured Of Club and Park.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Jan. 5.—(AP)—Little Rock's berth in the Southern Association was assured tonight by action of the school board in renewing the lease through 1931 on Kavanaugh field.

Simultaneously, spokesmen for a group of businessmen announced they had exercised the five-day option on the stock of the club, allowed by R. G. Allen, owner.

H. Brady Manning, a member of the company financed to take over the club ownership, declined to make known the purchase price but said 25 stockholders had subscribed sufficient funds with which to make the first down payment to Mr. Allen.

The lease grants the Little Rock Baseball Association use of Kavanaugh field from April 15 to September 15 without rental. However, the new owners agreed to pay the High School Athletic Association $1,500 for expenses incurred in making the field suitable for another season of baseball. Tonight's action by the school board terminated 16 years lease hold on the park by Mr. Allen.

It was considered by members at the board meeting also to have struck a blow at propositions for a six-club circuit, previously suggested at a meeting of the league directors.

Midnight tonight was the "zero hour" of three months' negotiations on the part of local interests to save baseball for the city. An option expired at that time and President John D. Martin had informed the city baseball committee it had only until tonight to decide if it would keep the franchise.

The school board exacted a promise from the new owners not to seek an extension of time on the lease after the coming baseball season.

The company plans to finance a new ball park in 1932, according to Mr. Manning.

Highest Bidder To Get Vol Club.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 5.—(AP)—The Nashville Baseball Association will be sold to the highest bidder before January 20, J. H. Whaley, president, said today.

"The directors have decided to receive bids until a few days before the date," Whaley announced. "All offers will be considered and the best one accepted," he said.

John D. Martin, president of the Southern association, of which the Nashville club is a member, has set January 20 as the date by which local officials must complete their negotiations.

The annual meeting of stockholders of the Nashville club is scheduled for January 13, and it is considered likely that some action will be taken at that time.

Benny Bass Wins.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Benny Bass, junior lightweight champion, successfully defended his title at the arena tonight by punching out a 10-round decision over Lew Massey, Philadelphia Italian. Bass, weighed 128 1/2 pounds, Massey 128.

Carideo Signed As Purdue Coach.

MT. VERNON, N. Y., Jan. 5.—(UP)—Frank Carideo, All-American quarterback of last year's Notre Dame football team, has accepted a position as assistant coach at Purdue University, he announced at welcome-home ceremony here tonight.

More than 2,000 of his fellow-townsmen braved a heavy rain to welcome Carideo at the city hall.

Cracker Player Starts Training

Roy Carlyle, Cracker outfielder, started spring training Monday, Carlyle purchased a sweat shirt and started working out in Dab's Health Club, playing handball to get his legs and wind in shape. Carlyle "wintered" at his home in Norcross, Ga.

"I haven't had much exercise this winter," said Carlyle, "and I thought it about time I was getting started. It looks like the competition will be hot and I want to be ready."

Carlyle was purchased from Kansas City last summer. He had formerly played in the major leagues.

FURMAN BEATS TRIANGLES, 28-26

Hurricane Gets Early Lead To Add Y. M. C. A. To Its List.

By Herb Clark.

Taking a dictatorial command of affairs with the opening whistle and relinquishing the scepter for the space of 30 seconds during the evening, Furman's basketball hurricane swept another Atlanta foe, the Y. M. C. A., 28-26, in the courts at the Y. last night, 28-26. The Purple five had previously beaten the A. A. C. 26-24, Saturday night. They made their final local stand tonight against the J. P. C. crew in the Pryor street gym at 8:30 o'clock.

Monday the lads from the Carolina foothills spent some three minutes getting used to a mini-sized floor on Luckie street. And then they started. They rushed half a dozen points through the nets before the home quintet could start, and they kept a safe lead throughout the first half, leaving the floor with a 20-14 advantage which might well have been more but which looked mighty safe then.

The Y. started a mini-sized floor half reached the midway mark, trying the count at 23-23 and taking 24-23 and 26-25 leads, but could not keep the pace. They dropped off as fouls piled up. Furman cracked from the corner for two points and went down for the last time, fouled by the Purple five, who were forced to find in the effort to block Furman's perfect ball-handling. Southern slipped the last counter into the records.

This Southern paired with Ramich to perfect the Furman attack, though they never far outlasted Watson, Wells and Olsen, their mates of the game.

Brook and King set the pace for the Y. five, Brook doing most of the shooting.

Tedder led the J. O. Y. Class to a 20-16 victory over the Gordon Street Presbyterian Club in a fast preliminary game, with Lay sparking the losing drive.

Haygood Resigns Alabama Position

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Jan. 5.—(AP)—The News today says Jimmy Haygood, track coach at the University of Alabama, has resigned to become director of athletics at Southwestern University, Memphis. His contract at Alabama expires March 1.

Haygood was Coach Dan McGugin's first quarterback at Vanderbilt University where he played in 1904. In 1907 he was head coach at Henderson-Brown University. In 1925 he went to Southern College at Lakeland, Fla., as football coach and in 1927 went to Alabama.

Vol Five Beats Clemson, 40-32

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 5.—(AP)—The University of Tennessee basketball quintet defeated Clemson, 40-32, here tonight in its first Southern conference game this season.

Taking the lead at the start Tennessee held it safe until the Volunteers when the Vols found themselves leading by the slim margin of two points. Corbitt, Tennessee's All-Southern forward of 1929, dropped three balls through the hoop in a last-minute spurge to give Tennessee a decisive victory.

Golf Pros Plan Early Tournaments

Plans for a number of spring and summer golf tournaments and a general get-together featured a meeting Monday morning at the Druid Hills Golf Club of the Atlanta Professional Golfers' association. It was voted to hold another meeting Monday, January 19, at the Capital City Country Club, and definite plans will be announced at the time.

Kennedy Signs With Columbia

COLUMBIA, S. C., Jan. 5.—(AP)—The Columbia Record said today that Ray Kennedy, former manager of Charlotte and Asheville, Sally league clubs, has been signed to manage the Columbia club in 1931.

Commenting on the decision of the Pittsburgh Pirates to withdraw their support from the local club, the Record says "it is believed a local purchaser will be secured at an early date."

SOUTH HAS BEST GAME ON COURT, MUNDORFF SAYS

Strict Adherence to Rules Benefits Both Players and Spectators.

By Ralph McGill.

Roy Mundorff, Georgia Tech basketball coach, who returned with his team Monday from an eastern campaign, believes southern basketball style the best and further believes it will be universally adopted within a decade.

Southern basketball is cleaner, faster and better for the spectators than the style of play in the east and west, Mundorff says in support of his claim that the south has developed the better game.

"Basketball in the east," the Georgia Tech coach said, "is as different from the south's style as the south's style of play is from the west's," Mundorff said Monday.

"In the south we play the game by the rule book and adhere to the rules strictly," he said. "That is why an invading team is under a disadvantage going east. A rougher type of game is played and referees do not interpret the rules so strictly. The west and middle west play an even rougher game."

CONTACT ALLOWED.

Mundorff, a former Pennsylvania player, declared that referees in the east allowed body contact and also permit blocking. The south follows the rule makers who declare that basketball is an essentially non-contact game.

The Georgia Tech coach was not seeking to alibi the few defeats his team suffered on the road. The trip was a highly successful one despite the fact that several of the regular players were crippled. None of the games lost by the Jackets was by wide margins.

NEW DEFENSE.

Mundorff has evolved a "shifting zone defense" of his own which caused much favorable comment in the east. The gymnasium game has become increasingly popular in the south and Atlanta's annual Southern conference basketball tournament is one of the most successful offered each year.

The Jackets open their Southern conference schedule Wednesday against South Carolina, and open the city campaign Saturday night with the A. A. C. five.

"Ginny" Wages, captain of the Tech team, was able to play in but the first two games on the road trip just completed. He may be ready Wednesday night.

Wade To Report At Duke Jan. 15

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Jan. 5.—(AP)—The Charlotte News today said it had been advised by Wallace Wade, coach of the University of Alabama's Crimson Tide, that he would report to Duke University, where he has signed contract to coach, January 15.

Wade said he would take charge of spring football practice at the Durham school but that no coaching assistants would be selected until after the winter training period had been completed.

Wade said the University of Alabama today released him from his contract which was not to expire until September 1.

McGraw Favors Rookie at Third

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—(AP)—If John McGraw keeps his plan with him to convert Freddie Lindstrom, star third baseman of the New York Giants, into an outfielder next season, two minor league recruits will battle it out for the vacant spot in the infield. McGraw hopes that either Jack Yerges, from the Oakland club, or Jackie Cofield, from the Boston Red Sox, will be selected.

Some of the more facetious critics insist that Lindstrom's stay in the outfield will last only as long as the Giants are in spring training, and that he will be in his usual place when the Giants return to the Polo Grounds in 1931.

Millsaps Joins New Conference

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Jan. 5.—(AP)—Birmingham-Southern College, president of the newly formed Dixie conference, announced today that Millsaps College at Jackson, Miss., had been admitted to the conference.

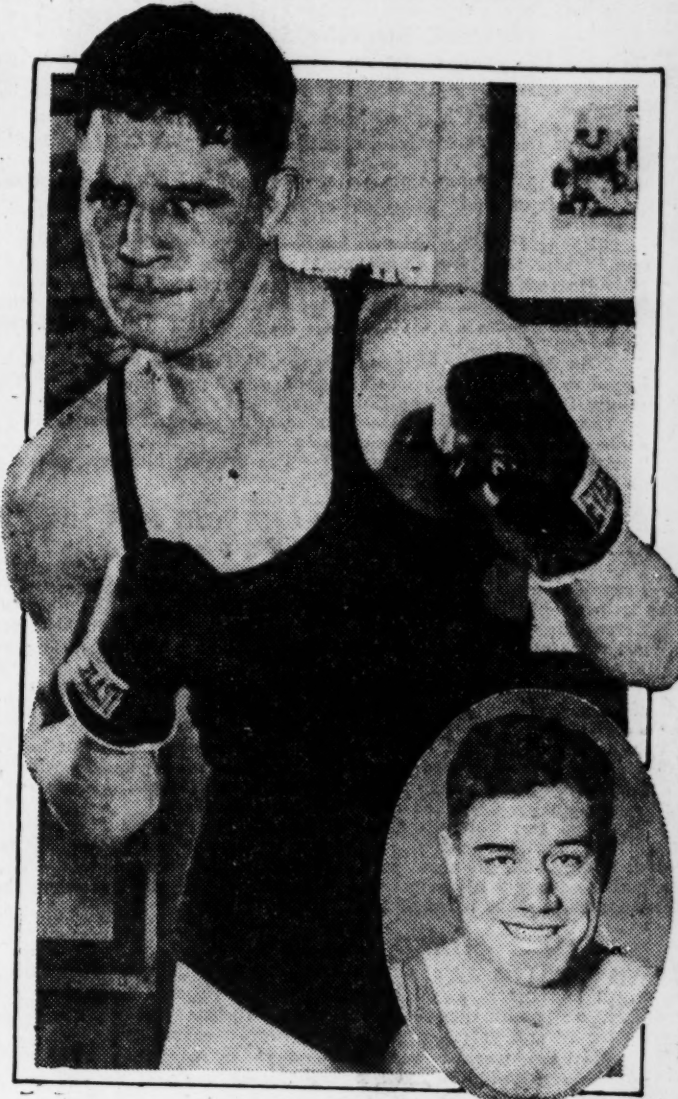

Millsaps is the eighth member. The conference was formed early last December, which included Birmingham-Southern, Mercer, Howard, Centre, Southwestern and Spring Hill as charter members.

Dean Meigs said two more members probably would be admitted at the conference's meeting in Jackson, Miss., next month. Conference rules limit the membership to ten.

BASKETBALL

Furman 28; Y. M. C. A. 26.
Y. of Louisville 20; Berea College 43.
North Carolina 31; Durham Y. M. C. A. 14.
Alabama 23; South Carolina 18.
Oklahoma 23; Grinnell College 18.
Iowa 21; Drake 20.
Brigham Young 20; Nebraska 9.
Wisconsin 15; Illinois 9.
Columbia Council, N. C. 40; Yale 20.

Baer Tries Heeney Next

Max Baer, coast slugger who is rated as one of the best of the present crop of young heavyweight prospects, hopes to use the "hard rock from down under," Tom Heeney, inset, as a rung in his climb to a championship bout. Max and Tom meet in New York on January 16.

Former Sandlot Star May Stick With Macon

Roy Humphreys, Inman Park Cardinal, Gets Trial—Other Atlantans Signed.

By Ralph McGill.

When the Macon baseball club begins spring training in March one of the outfield prospects will be Roy Humphreys, former Inman Park Cardinal.

He was one of the gay irresponsibles who rode north and almost won a sectional championship in 1929 when the Cardinals were the heroes of the sandlots.

Roy Humphreys, who has shagged perhaps a million fly balls at Spiller field, has grown up around a baseball park. He was given a trial with Macon last spring, but this year he has a chance to stick.

The ambition of every last one of those gay and gaudy boys who caught the fancy of Atlanta by their play in 1929, was to become a professional baseball player. They shagged flies at the park and most of them hustled Coca-Colas once the game got going.

Charley Moore, Macon manager, was through Atlanta a few days ago. He told Humphreys to report, and that he had a chance to stick.

Earl Mann, popular young Atlantan who serves as secretary of the Macon club, said that there was no better fielder on the Macon lot last spring than young Humphreys. He was just 17 years old then. And now he has another year of experience.

The rules provide that the Sally league clubs must carry two rookies from the sandlots or Class D leagues. This gives Humphreys his chance. Two minor league recruits will battle it out for the vacant spot in the infield. McGraw hopes that either Jack Yerges, from the Oakland club, or Jackie Cofield, from the Boston Red Sox, will be selected.

Some of the more facetious critics insist that Lindstrom's stay in the outfield will last only as long as the Giants are in spring training, and that he will be in his usual place when the Giants return to the Polo Grounds in 1931.

Mann thinks that the Sally league, Macon especially, is in for a good season despite the fact that Augusta and Columbia appear very hazy about their prospects.

"I think that both of them will come around all right," said Mann. "Augusta averaged a thousand people at each game and Augusta is in lights. Columbia is pretty sure to be reorganized even if they do lose the major league support they have had," he concluded.

Macon, a pennant contender all last season, was nosed out by Greenville in the play-off series. The Peaches return a good pitching staff and enough material to build on.

"Nap" Rucker, the famous southpaw of some years ago, has turned up some good youngsters and Macon hopes to jump out ahead early.

Playing with Macon affords the young ball players a chance to be taken up by Brooklyn. There is always a lot of hustle on the club.

More than a half dozen of last year's Macon ball club will be taken south by the Robins this spring. Among them will be Bob Farham, Atlanta boy, who was purchased from Atlanta in 1929 and farmed out to Macon last season.

'Hank' Bruder Weds At Waukegan, Ill.

WAUKEGAN, Ill., Jan. 5.—(AP)—Henry "Hank" Bruder, Northwestern University football star, and Miss Omega Gilbert, of Evanston, Ill., were married here Sunday afternoon by Justice of the Peace Wilfred Hall.

GOTHAM BOARD AWAITS MAXIE'S ANSWER TODAY

Nate Lewis Ready To Renew $500,000 Offer To German For Go.

CHICAGO, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Sidney M. Strotz, president of the Chicago Stadium Corporation, and his matchmaker, Nate Lewis, left for New York today to jump into the negotiations for the proposed fight between Max Schmeling, world's heavyweight champion, and W. L. Young, Stribling in Soldier field next summer.

"We will renew our $500,000 offer to Schmeling," Strotz said, "and I believe we can sign him up. Furthermore, we are prepared to buy out the Hearst milk fund interest in the show. If we are lucky enough to land the match, the setting will be Soldier field. I expect the situation will break tomorrow after the meeting of the New York state athletic commission."

Strotz figures on charging a "common sense" price for the proposed fight, with a top of $20 or $25. Soldier field, in which Gene Tunney defended his title against Jack Dempsey in the battle of 1927, will accommodate 140,000 spectators for a boxing show.

Strotz said the match might draw $1,500,000, with the prices he intends to charge. The Tunney-Dempsey match drew a rate of over $2,000,000, with "ringside" seats selling for $40.

Gotham Awaits Today's 'Show Down.'

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—(AP)—The forces of Max Schmeling, heavyweight champion, and the New York state athletic commission that make him king, waited silently today for the "show down" tomorrow on the future status of Teuton schlager in this state.

The time limit given Joe Jacobs, manager of Schmeling, in which to answer the commission ultimatum that he sign immediately for a title bout with Jack Sharkey, expires tomorrow. The commission has warned Jacobs that he must answer "yes" or "no" and be prepared to post a $10,000 forfeit that Max will go through with the match in June.

Jacobs has declared that he will do no more than to answer the commission ultimatum. Schmeling will fight the "outstanding contender," he named 90 days before the contest. If both sides stick to their resolutions Schmeling will be stripped of his title and will sign for a 15-round bout with Young Stribling to take place in Soldier field, Chicago, in June.

N. B. A. Members Favor Ousting Schmeling.

CHICAGO, Jan. 5.—(UP)—Although Max Schmeling has violated National Boxing Association rules requiring champions to defend their titles within six months, it is probable that the German heavyweight will be stripped of his championship.

Eight of ten states in the N. B. A. have voted to oust Schmeling from boxing to an announcement today by President John V. Cinnin, but in view of differences among member states on the question it is probable Schmeling will be granted a time extension. The two remaining states among the ten that have voted recommended periods of 90 and 30 days extension for Schmeling to decide on the first defense of his title.

With 17 states comprising a majority nine more affirmative votes are necessary before action is taken.

Marietta High Enters 'League'

Admission of Marietta High and adoption of a constitution and by-laws featured a meeting of the North Georgia Intercollegiate Athletic Association Monday night at the Atlanta Athletic Club. Chauncey Hall, through its principal, A. O. Smith, and Douglasville, applied for entrance, but, due to a limit of ten teams, their bids were tabled.

The making of basketball schedules occupied a large portion of the meeting, but since several of the members already had made definite dates it was voted to play independent schedules.

It was also voted to hold a tournament late in February to determine a league winner. No tournament will be held in 1932.

Another meeting was set for January 19, in Joe Bean's office at the Atlanta Athletic Club.

Those present at the meeting were Joe Bean, of Macon, president; W. Rampley, secretary; O. L. Amster and Dickie Butler, of Decatur; A. O. Smith, of Chamblee; J. G. Lewis, of W. O. Rourke and R. L. Bowen, of Russell; L. L. Roon, of University School; E. P. McIlwain, of Fulton; R. H. Talbot, of Marietta; J. P. Mosely, of Thomaston; T. G. Dulin and Paul Murray, of Griffin, and S. Antley and J. G. Hollis, of Marietta.

Lott Turns Down Pro Tennis Offer

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 5.—(AP)—George M. Lott, Jr., a member of the United States 1930 Davis cup tennis team, today announced he had turned down a proposition to turn professional and become a member of the Bill Tilden-Karel Koželum indoor tour which opens in New York February 18.

Forrest Hills Is Resting Easy

Forrest Hill, manager of the Forrest Hill Golf Club near Avondale, was resting easy Monday night at the government hospital on Peachtree road, where he has been confined. Attendees at the hospital reported that Hill will be confined for several weeks, following a nervous trouble.

Additional Sports

ARMY JUMPERS SOUGHT TO TOP ATLANTA SHOW

Greatest Local Meeting Planned for April 21-23 Dates.

Atlanta's greatest horse show is planned for April with the United States International jumping team as one of the features, according to announcement Monday by the committee.

The dates announced are for April 21, 22 and 23 at Piedmont park with the cavalry from Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia, already assured as participants.

Plans for the spring show were made last week at a dinner attended by those interested. The dinner, given by Colonel Hunt Chipley, found Atlanta's leading horse owners present.

Included among the guests were J. K. Otley, J. L. Dickey, General Frank McCoy, Colonel Fitzhugh Lee, Major Trammell Scott, W. K. Kiser, Herbert Oliver and Colonel Theodore Goolsby.

Major Scott said that the plans were laid early so that the horse show officials might arrange for a number of the nation's finest horses to be scheduled for the Atlanta show.

It is expected that a number of the fine show horses from Aiken, S. C., will be shown here.

General Frank McCoy is at work on the project of bringing in the international jumping team, champions this year. He feels that he will succeed.

Officers of the Horse Show Association are: Hunt Chipley, president; Colonel Fitzhugh Lee, general manager; Herbert Oliver, secretary, and Theodore Goolsby, treasurer.

Lewis Ruch Heads Phillies Ball Club

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Lewis C. Ruch, vice president of the Philadelphia National League Baseball Club, today was elected president at a meeting of the club's board of directors. He succeeds William F. Baker, who died recently in Montreal.

'875
THE GREATER
HUDSON 8
Business Coupe
Coach $595

'595
THE NEW ESSEX
Business Coupe
Coach $595

Special equipment Extra
All prices F. O. B. Detroit
It costs no more to ride in comfort. Now you can own a car that takes you over the roughest roads smoothly and easily. Hudson-Essex gives you Rare Riding Comfort at amazing low prices. See these sensational new cars and ride in them.
You will be delighted with their sparkling beauty, brilliant performance and surprising economy, too.

AS PURE
AS MONEY CAN BUY

St. Joseph's PURE ASPIRIN
12 TABLETS 10c
36 TABLETS 25c
100 TABLETS 60c

THE LARGEST SELLING ASPIRIN
IN THE WORLD FOR 10c

NOW is the time

Equip your radio with a set of brand new RCA Radiotrons, the tubes which are recommended by leading set manufacturers. Don't wait until you lose your interest in the magic of radio.

A 'phone call to us will bring a set of RCA Radiotrons to your home.

GEORGIA POWER COMPANY

A Citizen Wherever We Serve

THE SPORTLIGHT By Frankfort Rice

THE REVISED VERSION.

Lives there a dub with soul so dead
Who never to himself has said,
With spirit somewhat sore,
"This year I'll take off 20 strokes,
I'll trim some of these pop-eyed jokes,
I'll dabble in their gore?"

Lives there a dub with soul so spent Who's never said, with deep content,
Through sleet and snow and ice,
"I'll cut away that shoulder dip,
I'll pivot better at the hip,
I'll cure that blinkin' slice?"

KNUTE ROCKNE'S LATEST.

THE grind and strain of the last football season is over for Knute Rockne, but the humor of the campaign still remains. Here's his latest—

"Ball on the 50-yard line, Notre Dame's ball—old grad up in the stands taking a nip from a bottle. 'Watch that Carideo,' he says.

"There's the smartest quarterback in football. He'll pass on the first down—watch him." (Carideo sends Schwartz through guard for eight yards.)

"Old grad (taking another nip)—'Now watch Carideo. He's found their weakness. He'll shoot Schwartz through again.' (Carideo sends Brill on spinner for nine more.)

"Old grad (blinking and taking one more nip)—'Watch him come back with Brill. That's the play.' (Carideo sends Schwartz off tackle for 10 yards.)

"Old grad—'Now he'll come back with Schwartz again. He's bound to.' (Carideo passes to opponent's 2-yard line).

"Notre Dame now has the ball on opponent's 2-yard line.

"Stranger (to Old Grad)—'You seem to know all about Carideo's system. What's he going to do now?'

"Old grad (taking one more nip)—'I've brought him this far. It's up to him to go the rest of the way.'"

CHAMPIONS AND THEIR CHANCES FOR 1931.

NO. 2. JOHNNY DOEG.

As a rule a tennis champion has a great chance to repeat. Many have repeated three or four times. Larned, Tilden and others ran out long strings. But Johnny Doeg, the new national champion, is up against a different proposition. He has a flock of star youngsters to beat and at least three of them are as good as he is, including Wood, Shields and Sutter.

Doeg won a great championship by showing a great amount of gameness and steadiness under heavy fire. He deserves a world of credit for the job he did, especially in the fourth set against Frank Shields, who was storming at every front. But he will have less chance to play tennis this next season and he will find three or four young stars who have been seasoned through a hard campaign, who the next championship starts.

This next test will be a battle of youth unless Cochet comes over. It will be one of the most open of them all, with Wood and Shields favored, if they hold the same pace they had most of last summer. This means the odds will be against Doeg's repeating. He will be among the champions who have a rough road ahead.

MIXED CHAMPIONS.

IF the New York state boxing commission withdraws Schmeling's crown and the N. B. A. orders a meeting between Schmeling and Stribling, we might then have the same situation that wrestling has known for several years—which is two world's champions.

This has worked out well enough in wrestling without upsetting the universe, and it might work out just as well in the fight game.

Sharkey might represent one championship clique and either Schmeling or Stribling the other. The next move would be to have Europe nominate Carnazza for a third title.

Londos and George are now the two heavyweight wrestling champions, and you can take your pick, or leave both alone.

Schmeling has one big advantage in holding the title. No one has ever yet taken away a heavyweight title outside the ring. Anyway, the complications ahead seem to be larger than usual and the tangle may even get to be worse.

TODAY'S GOLF DOPE.

R. L. F. wants to know just what is meant by "correct wrist action."

The main idea involves flexible, pliable wrists, which are cocked or broken at the top of the swing.

The left wrist at the top of the swing has to be cocked or there is sure to be far less speed through the down swing, with a tendency to throw the right side around in an attempt to get physical power from the body.

Bobby Jones, for one example, says that one of his main points of concentration is on the cocked left wrist at the top of the swing. He seems to have done fairly well by the proper use of this important fundamental.

(Copyright, 1931, for The Constitution and the North American Newspaper Alliance.)

Gamecocks Open Tiger Court Card

AUBURN, Ala., Jan. 5.—Auburn's 1931 basketball schedule will officially get under way Tuesday evening in Alumni gymnasium when the South Carolina Gamecocks will be encountered in the Tigers' initial Southern conference game of the year. The game will start promptly at 8 o'clock and the popular prices of 35 and 75 cents will prevail.

Coch Sun McAllister has been drilling the Plainsmen at a fast pace in preparation for the Gamecocks and the Clemson Tigers, the opposition carded for the Tiger hardwood artists next Saturday evening here.

If scrimmages have not been held, lengthy sessions in passing, shooting, weaving and other fundamental work has been given which has made the players repeatedly remark that an hour of rough work would be a blessing.

Since every member of the squad has to shoot 25 fouls before the work-overs are over, improvement in making free throws has already been noticed.

McAllister is a coach who does not want to see his team lose because of being unable to make the tries given them by the officials.

While turning out winning teams at St. Viator College, Bourbonnais, Ill., McAllister's cage teams generally made three-fourths of the fouls attempted. In one game against a leading Illinois foe, his quintet barely won, 18-17, because his proteges were able to sink their foul shots, 13 of their points coming this way.

The Bengals' mentor has not indicated who will be the starters in Auburn's initial conference test, but the likely starters are: Captain Ralph Kaley and Frock Pate, forwards; Jack Starn, center; and Charles Kaley and Lindley Hatfield, guards.

Other players who have been showing up well and are expected to see plenty of service are: Tom Lumpkin, George Jenkins, Odie Aldridge and Sam Mason, forwards; and Scott Turk, Harbin Lawson and Vernard Vines, guards.

Braves Plan To Build Slugging Ball Team

Manager Bill McKechnie has a slugging in mind for the Braves in 1931. Biff Berber, home run thriller, Wes Schulmerick, another couch slugging, and Red Worthington, of Rochester, will make up the outfield.

Buster Chatham, another hard hitter from the coast, will be at third, and Earl Sheely at first. Sheely also has been with the leaders of the coast circuit.

MacGuire and Maranville, the key-stone pair, will be the lightest sticks, but they're not weakling. Spohrer and Root will be the regular catchers and both can hit the ball.

Glen Arven Club Plans Winter Golf

THOMASVILLE, Ga., Jan. 5.—A series of tournaments and matches to be participated in by women golfers is being arranged by the Glen Arven Country Club in Thomasville.

The committee is headed by Mrs. Morse Ely, who acted as chairman of a similar committee recently at the Lake Forest Club in Chicago. She is being aided by Mrs. James S. Mason and Mrs. Ernest F. Wahl, local golfers.

The program under consideration provides for matches each Tuesday during the winter tourist season.

Two or more big tournaments for ladies will be put on later in the season. No dates have yet been set.

Wear To Resign Post, Paper Says

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—(AP)—The New York Times will say tomorrow that Joseph W. Wear, of Philadelphia, will resign as chairman of the Davis cup committee of the United States Lawn Tennis Association because of pressure of business.

With football, golf and other sports disputing baseball's claim as America's national game it may be interesting to adopt fans to learn that Japan has dumped the game wholeheartedly.

Every school in Japan has a team—541 of them. And all of them are in the annual tournament for the national championship.

Japan has built parks capable of taking care of crowds from 40,000 to 70,000 fans.

Tab, shortstop of the Meiji team, has the greatest throwing arm that Coach Nels Norgren of the University of Chicago ever saw.

Wormser Hatters Win at Ten Pins

A spectacular rally in the last two games enabled the Wormser Hatters to beat a Birmingham All-Star team, four out of five games in a Saturday night match at the Atlanta Bowling Alleys. The locals won the first and second games, but lost the third and came back strong to win the fourth and fifth. The fifth game was won by one pin.

GOOD SOIL.

Len Harry, English middleweight, comes from Cornwall, the home of Bob Fitzsimmons. He has 200 knockouts in 350 engagements.

Help the Unemployed

The Atlanta Better Business Commission invites your co-operation towards increasing employment in our city. Take an inventory of the needs of your home and premises. Fill out the appended coupon, adding anything other that comes to your mind.

GARDEN WORK, BASEMENT OR ATTIC CLEANING, HOUSE CLEANING, YARD CARPENTRY, HOUSE CARPENTRY, PAINTING, PAPERING, CALCIMINING, WHITEWASHING, MASONRY.

Sign your name.

House No.
Telephone No.
Mail to EMERGENCY EMPLOYMENT HEADQUARTERS
85 Poplar Street.

Bus Program for Labor Meeting Coming Up Tonight

Organized Unions Seek To Have Motor Carriers Placed on Same Basis as Railroads.

Aroused over the danger to America's railroad network offered by "harum-scarum and irresponsible" bus lines, a sub-committee of organized labor will meet at 7:30 o'clock tonight to plan a tangible program for placing bus lines on a par with railroads.

The meeting is the standpoint of regulation, Emmett Quinn, president of the Machinists' Union, announced Monday.

Drafted by the sub-committee will be submitted to a labor mass meeting at the temple on January 18, when representatives from every section of the state will attend. On the sub-committee are H. C. Lane, of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks; John F. Scott, of the carmen; L. W. Flowers, of the trainmen; W. J. Purdie, of the machinists; A. Steve Nance, president of the Federation of Trades; O. E. Petry, president of the Georgia Federation of Labor; Carl Karstom, secretary of the Atlanta federation, and Mr. Quinn.

"On one hand we have the railroads, employing 1,700,000 persons with nearly 6,000,000 persons dependent on the industry for a living, and operating with equipment, etc., representing an investment of billions of dollars; and on the other hand we have bus lines, taking the cream of the business away from the railroads and not paying taxes or being regulated in anything like a just fashion," Mr. Quinn said.

"The movement to protect the interests of the public and the railroads is sponsored by the shopkeepers and the four big brotherhoods. Numbers of railroad employees are being laid off already, largely because of bus competition, and if the situation is not corrected, the railroads will go under and transportation in this country paralyzed, because bus lines cannot begin to take up where the railroads leave off," Mr. Quinn said.

"We have a policy of live and let live. We do not want to drive the bus lines out of business, because the automobile is here to stay, but we do want them placed on a like footing with the railroads. Railroads own their rights of way and pay taxes in every county in which they operate. The bus lines operate over the public's highways, destroying roads that cost $30,000 a mile, and have no adequate regulation or inspection. Engineers serve years of freedom before taking the throttle, and have periodic examinations. Bus drivers have no limit as to hours of work, and are liable not to go on a run when they need sleep, thus endangering lives. There is no limit to weight, length or width of busses, and some trailers even carry a number of new automobiles in such a manner as to menace people on the highways.

"We want to impress on the public generally the great need of saving the railroads. Many other industries are dependent on the railroads, such as steel, coal, lumber and glass and railroads carry the great bulk of mail and fast express.

HARPER READY FOR ZAHARIAS

Speed Will Enable Youngster To Avoid Greek's Flying Tackle.

George Zaharias' shoulder blocking, which won him a fall against Dick Davis last week, will hardly prove as effective against Paul Harper when he meets Wednesday night at the auditorium.

Zaharias, knocked groggy in the first part of the match, came back to win the second in 14 minutes. The peculiar thing about the shoulder blocks is that the big fellows can stand it less than any other type. That is the portly type. "Strangler" Lewis is absolutely hopeless against the butting of an opponent. Dick Davis, who is built almost exactly as Lewis, was also felled by it.

Recovering power of his men has always been obvious in any athletic competition. The wrestlers, who must necessarily be in tip-top physical condition, come back quickly. They can go at top speed for a time after being battered in the first minutes of a match.

Zaharias, an unusually large and strong wrestler, was able to win a fall from Davis last week and was well on his way to winning the match when he was knocked out on one of his plunging dives.

Harper, faster than Zaharias, will be able to avoid the butting tactics of the big fellow, dubbed "The Human Truck." The match sums up as a tie of the best.

The semi-windup may bring out the police reserves. It is likely to resemble a riot. When Blackstock, who likes it rough, meets Bill Middlekauff, he meets one who doesn't mind how rough it gets. Middlekauff, who is developing quickly, goes almost berserk in the ring. Ladies in ring-side seats shiver at the look on his face when he goes in for the "kill." The wrestling card should stack up with the best.

Tickets are going well. They are on sale at the Coliseum building, south fountain and at the Piedmont Hatters. Ladies will, as usual, be admitted to any seat for $1.

T. H. S. SQUAD IS HONORED

Continued from First Sport Page.

nate Captain W. Hinson, Bender, Coursey, Welch, Heard, Gibson, J. Hadley, Brooks, Street, Hurst, Sanborn, Boyd, Middlekauff, and Thompson. Those players who received sweaters in addition to those who received footballs include Bloodworth, Moore, Platan, Nye, Tolive, Bonner, Callis and McNamara.

Others who received numerals include Burton, Hammond, L. Hadley, B. Hinson, Pickett, Doyal, Price, Moore, Platan, Nye, Tolive, Bonner, Callis and McNamara.

Others who received numerals include Burton, Hammond, L. Hadley, B. Hinson, Pickett, Doyal, Price, Moore, Platan, Nye, Tolive, Bonner, Callis and McNamara.

Others who received numerals include Burton, Hammond, L. Hadley, B. Hinson, Pickett, Doyal, Price, Moore, Platan, Nye, Tolive, Bonner, Callis and McNamara.

Others who received numerals include Burton, Hammond, L. Hadley, B. Hinson, Pickett, Doyal, Price, Moore, Platan, Nye, Tolive, Bonner, Callis and McNamara.

Others who received numerals include Burton, Hammond, L. Hadley, B. Hinson, Pickett, Doyal, Price, Moore, Platan, Nye, Tolive, Bonner, Callis and McNamara.

Others who received numerals include Burton, Hammond, L. Hadley, B. Hinson, Pickett, Doyal, Price, Moore, Platan, Nye, Tolive, Bonner, Callis and McNamara.

Others who received numerals include Burton, Hammond, L. Hadley, B. Hinson, Pickett, Doyal, Price, Moore, Platan, Nye, Tolive, Bonner, Callis and McNamara.

Others who received numerals include Burton, Hammond, L. Hadley, B. Hinson, Pickett, Doyal, Price, Moore, Platan, Nye, Tolive, Bonner, Callis and McNamara.

Others who received numerals include Burton, Hammond, L. Hadley, B. Hinson, Pickett, Doyal, Price, Moore, Platan, Nye, Tolive, Bonner, Callis and McNamara.

Others who received numerals include Burton, Hammond, L. Hadley, B. Hinson, Pickett, Doyal, Price, Moore, Platan, Nye, Tolive, Bonner, Callis and McNamara.

Others who received numerals include Burton, Hammond, L. Hadley, B. Hinson, Pickett, Doyal, Price, Moore, Platan, Nye, Tolive, Bonner, Callis and McNamara.

HOW TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Makes One Look Younger.

Men and women who used to be called Grandpa and Grandma are now setting the style by darkening their gray hair at home.

For instance, J. A. McCrea, a well-known Californian, recently made the following statement:

"Anyone can prepare a simple mixture in five minutes, that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. Merely take a half-pint of water, add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and 4 ounce of glycerine.

"These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at trifling cost. Apply to the hair twice weekly with a comb. It does not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and will not rub off."—(adv.)

Get 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex from any druggist. Pour this into a pint bottle; then fill it with plain granulated sugar syrup or strained honey. The full pint thus made costs no more than a small bottle of ready-made medicine, yet it is much more effective. It is pure, keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.

This simple remedy has a remarkable three-fold action. It goes right to the seat of trouble, loosens the germ-laden phlegm, and soothes away the inflammation. Part of the medicine is absorbed into the blood, where it acts directly upon the bronchial tubes and thus helps inwardly to throw off the whole trouble with surprising ease.

It is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway Pine, containing the active agent of creosote, in a refined, palatable form, and known as one of the greatest healing agents for severe coughs, chest colds and bronchial troubles.

Do not accept a substitute for Pinex. It is guaranteed to give prompt relief or money refunded. —(adv.)

Gall Stone Colic

Avoid operations if possible. Treat the cause in a sensible, painless, inexpensive way at home. Write Home Drug Co., 812-814 Broadway, New York, N. Y., for a recognized practicing specialist's prescription on liver and gall bladder trouble, for treatment and treatment which has been giving gratifying results for years. Under money-back guarantee, clip this out NOW.

STORAGE

The most modern warehouse in the South for household goods. Long experience. Removals. Cathart Van & Storage Co. 134 Houston St., N. E. WA. 7721

For Cold Take

KOLD-LIXIR

For Coughs

CHICHESTERS PILLS

THE MARMON BRAND

THE MARMON BRAND

THE MARMON BRAND

THE MARMON BRAND

HIGH'S BASEMENT PRESENTS AN OLD FAVORITE TO THE NEW YEAR!

--- TODAY IS HIGH'S BASEMENT ---

50c Day!

Girls' 98c Dresses
Sizes 7 to 14 Yrs.

Each
Fast-colored prints in all the season's smart styles. Reduced to clear at, 50c
BASEMENT

Children's Unions
59c Knit Unions!
2 For Long or short sleeve, knee or ankle length styles. Odds and ends, mostly small sizes. 50c
BASEMENT

Women's Undies
49c to 69c Kinds!
2 For Clearance of cotton and rayon underthings, soiled and mussed from display. 50c
BASEMENT

79c Outing Gowns
Women's Sizes!
Special
Heavy, warm outing gowns, full cut and roomy. In pink or blue stripes. 50c
BASEMENT

Full Fashion HOSE
Chiffon and Service Weights
50c
Clearance! Some are slightly imperfect! All sizes and colors included. 50c
BASEMENT

Silk Hose, 2 Pairs
Rayon and Silk Mixtures 50c
Worth double this low price! Every pair with picot tops! All sizes. 50c
Children's 19c to 29c Sox—Odds, Ends. 50c
5 Pcs. 50c
BASEMENT

Rayon Underthings
69c and 79c Kinds!
50c
Bloomers, combinations, panties of non-rayon. Pastel shades, tailored styles. 50c
BASEMENT

Women's Unions
79c to 98c Kinds!
50c
Women's knit unions in long sleeve, ankle length, high neck styles. Sizes 36 to 44. 50c
BASEMENT

Outing Underwear
For Children!
69c values! Sleepers, sizes 2 to 6 years. Gowns in sizes 7 to 14 years. Heavy quality. 50c
BASEMENT

Smocks-Hoovers-Dresses
79c to 98c Kinds! 2 For Odds and ends to clear. All sizes up to 40. Slightly mussed from display! Special! 50c
BASEMENT

29c Cretonne
Regularly 29c!
4 Yds.
Gay, bright colors in attractive designs. Freshen your home for Spring! Special! 50c
BASEMENT

79c Window Shades
Sizes 3x6 Feet!
Good quality window shades in tints of ecru and green. Special for Tuesday! 50c
BASEMENT

Curtain Panels
69c to $1.19 Kinds!
Odd lot 5-piece curtain sets, panels and criss-cross curtains, to clear out! 50c
BASEMENT

Men's Shirts
79c to 98c Kinds!
Odds and ends to clear out at one low price! All sizes in collar attached styles. 50c
BASEMENT

Shirts, Shorts
Mostly Large Sizes!
2 For
Broken lot of higher-priced garments, reduced for a quick clearance! Broken sizes. 50c
BASEMENT

Men's Socks
'Seconds' Good Quality
5 Pairs
Attractive patterns and colors. Broken sizes, to clear, 5 pairs. 50c
BASEMENT

Junior League Jottings

By MRS. REGINALD FLEET, Editor

The Junior League of Atlanta will meet this (Tuesday) afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Piedmont Driving Club for its first meeting in the new year. A number of interesting reports will be given at this meeting. Mrs. Clark Howell, Jr., the president of the Atlanta Junior League, has appointed Mrs. John Knox the chairman for the Bobby Jones golf match which will be held in February. Mrs. Knox will report to the meeting the splendid plans which she has made for the match and the committee chairmen who will serve with her. The Bobby Jones golf match will be the highlight of the coming season and will attract visitors from all over the country. The proceeds of the golf match will be devoted to the support of the Junior League ward in the Eggleston Memorial hospital.

Again the Atlanta Junior League has maintained its high standard of representation in the Junior League Magazine for the January issue, which featured "Money" and included eight contributions from Atlanta. The "Old Book Column" contained a most interesting article by the city editor, Mrs. Lawrence Willet, in the account of a very unusual map of England, a "Punchinellography of England" printed in 1808, each county of England being represented by some famous character in history of fiction. The article was accompanied by a very clear photograph of the map. Elizabeth Davenport Plant, a Junior League transfer from Miami to Atlanta, contributed an amusing article on the periodic attacks of budgeting fever to which we all seem to be subject, entitled "Four Out of Every Five Have It." Virginia Jones' "Sez Aunt Pocahontas White, Sez She," the wise as well as humorous comments of an old darkey, was headed this month by an appropriate and well executed sketch by Frances Floyd Cooke. A review of Lynn Ward's "Mad Man's Drum" by Julia Wile in a few paragraphs stimulated an interest in the book. Two reports of the activities of the Atlanta Junior League concluded our representation in the magazine. One report dealt with the money raising activities of the league and the other with the effort of this league to assist in community relief. The national association has urged every Junior League to take cognizance of the unemployment situation and to assist in its mitigation. The Junior League of Atlanta is giving its best efforts to assist in every way possible.

The January issue of the magazine also included a very interesting article on the future home of the Association of Junior Leagues of America, the New Waldorf Astoria. The architect's sketches show that the new hotel will be one of the most beautiful buildings in New York. The Junior League will have 10,000 square feet of floor space in this building. The administration offices, including a conference room and the magazine offices will be on the 19th floor. On this floor will be bedrooms available to Junior League members. On the 20th floor will be a large clubroom opening upon a beautiful terrace. A private dining room is also included in the plans for Junior League headquarters. The New Waldorf Astoria is expected to be as interesting a factor in modern social life as the old Waldorf Astoria was in the gay nineties.

The provisional members of the Junior League have now completed their course of six lectures. They have received a set of examination questions compiled by the chairman of provisionals, Mrs. Henry Grady, Jr. They have been required to send in their answers by this date.

These questions are of such general interest to Junior League members that they are included in this week's Jottings. They are questions that every member of the Atlanta Junior League should be able to answer but probably could not. For the benefit of those who will be interested, the answers to these very well chosen questions will be read by the presiding officer at the meeting this afternoon.

The questions are as follows:

- I. What is the Junior League?
- II. Trace briefly the growth of the league:
 - (a). Where was the Junior League formed and what was its original purpose?
 - (b). What was the second city to join the league and in what year?
 - (c). When was the first national conference?
 - (d). How many regions are there and when was the first regional conference?
 - (e). Where are the association headquarters now located and what work is carried on there?
 - (f). What is the Junior League Magazine? When was it started and who is the present editor?
 - (g). Is there any similarity between the charity work of all the leagues?
 - (h). Excepting Canada, when did the first foreign league enter the association?
 - (i). Who is the present national president?
- III. When was the Atlanta League formed and by whom?
 - (a). What were some of the early activities of the Atlanta League?
 - (b). To what region does Atlanta now belong? What states will be in our new regional division if approved at the national conference?

- (c). What is the purpose of the Henrietta Eggleston Memorial hospital and how is it financed? What is the Atlanta League's connection with it?
- (d). Name some of the other activities of the Atlanta League. What bond is there between the league and the High Art Museum?
- IV. At a Junior League meeting, if you wanted action taken on a certain matter, what would be the correct procedure by you and the rest of the membership?
- V. Do you think the Atlanta League takes its proper place among civic organizations or should it take a more active political part?
- VI. What is a provisional member? What are the requirements of the provisional course? How could the lectures be made more interesting?

SOCIETY EVENTS

TUESDAY, JANUARY 6.
Mrs. W. L. Southwell will be hostess at an informal tea at her home on Fifteenth street in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Clift, of Evanston, Ill., and Miss Phoebe Rhett, debutante.

Shearith Israel Sisterhood will sponsor a benefit bridge to be held at 3 o'clock at Rich's tea room.

Members of the Atlanta Alumnae Association of Kappa Delta Sorority, will entertain at luncheon at 1 o'clock at the Henry Grady hotel.

Atlanta Smith College Club will meet for lunch at Rich's tea room at 1 o'clock. After luncheon Miss Lillian Kennedy will entertain the club at a bridge party at her home, 1250 Fairview road.

Mrs. Joel Hunter will be hostess at a tea at her home on Peachtree street in compliment to Miss Helen Alvis Howard and her guest, Miss Betty Collins, of Nassau, Bahama Islands.

Mrs. Foster Hume, Sr., and her sister, Miss Olympe Trabue, will entertain members of the Every Saturday Club in compliment to Mrs. Elizabeth Thiot Winship, who recently returned from an extended trip.

Alpha Delta Pi Alumnae Club, of Atlanta, holds its luncheon meeting at the Atlanta Athletic Club at 1 o'clock.

Johnson-Jones.

BARNESVILLE, Ga., Jan. 5.—Miss Madge Johnson, of Zebulon, and Carey Weldon Jones were married last Thursday at the home of the groom's uncle, Rev. J. M. Martin, near Barnesville, the ceremony being performed by Mr. Martin in the presence of a few friends and relatives of the young couple. Immediately after the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Jones left by motor for a short wedding journey in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Godard, of Goggans, announce the marriage of their daughter, Blance, to David L. Fincher, of Jackson, the wedding having taken place at Wedowee, Ala., December 12. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. A. Clark in the presence of several intimate friends of the couple. The wedding was a surprise to numbers of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Fincher.

Honoring Visitor.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Pappas entertained with a dinner party last evening at their home on Forrest avenue in honor of their sister, Miss Theresa Tassopoulos, who is visiting here. Among those invited were Mr. and Mrs. N. Janoulis, M. Theologitis, C. Kaniadas, John Janoulis, Miss Julia Janoulis, John Tassopoulos, Jim Janoulis and Spero Tassopoulos. Spero Tassopoulos, eldest brother of Mrs. Pappas, left yesterday to resume his studies at the University of Georgia in Athens. Mr. Tassopoulos is a member of the Georgia football team and played in the charity football game in New York city in December.

Miss Bivings Hostess.

Miss Helen Bivings was hostess at tea Sunday at her home on Wesley road, complimenting her guest, Miss Betty Mason, of Laurel, Miss. Assisting the hostess were a group of close friends, including Miss Ida Nevin, Miss Margaret Underwood, Miss Anna Blake Morrison, Miss Cabell Holland, Miss Clare Jones and Miss Alys Kelley.

First Footprints of Spring

$12.50

Sea Sand Kid with Watersnake. Also Black Kid with Grey Watersnake. High or low heels.

MAIL SERVICE STREET FLOOR

RICH'S

TUESDAY * FASHION DAY AT RICH'S

Due South

Rich's Resort Shop Re-Opens Today!

—Rich's Resort Shop (a regular Rip Van Winkle for sleeping the seasons around), stirs, blinks and awakes . . . to frown away the frozen countenance of Winter, to throw wide its portals to the gayest and sunniest young pleasure seekers that ever headed an Atlanta populace Due South! A tropical atmosphere pervades this third floor oasis . . . chipper monkeys swing blithely about by their tails, palm trees wave their fronds in welcome and a genial spirit invites you to go South via Rich's Resort Shop!

We Sponsor...

We Sponsor...

We Sponsor...

We Sponsor...

We Sponsor...

You are Cordially Invited to Attend A Palm Beach Fashion Show in Resort Shop 3 to 4 P. M.

RICH'S

INC.

For Active Sports:

The Plaid Bathing Suit, with dressmaker touches, $15.

Umbrella Hats of Rough Straw, $2.95.

The White Jersey Frock, $18

The Cotton Mesh Frock, $18

Suit of a Scrubbed Plaster Whiteness with Blouses in Algerian Color, $29.50.

The Mechanic's Coverall for Beach Lounging, $7.95.

The Nautical Beach Pajamas, $25.

Wide, Flapping Trows of Jersey to Pull on Over Bathing Suit, $9.95.

For Spectator Sports:

White Frock with Gypsy Sash, $39.50

Flowered Prints, $25.

Crepey Shantung, $25

—RICH'S, RESORT SHOP THIRD FLOOR

Models in Tea-Room 12 M. to 2 P. M.

TALLULAH CIRCLE PLANS BENEFIT DANCE IN JANUARY

Young Girls' Circle Meets To Discuss Interesting Plans

Outstanding on the social calendar of the month of January will be the elaborate benefit dance to be sponsored by the Young Girls' Circle of Tallulah Falls the latter part of January at the Biltmore hotel. Plans for the dance were discussed at the meeting of the circle yesterday afternoon held at the home of Miss Catherine Norcross on Peachtree street. In the absence of Miss Norcross, who is in New York city, Miss Frances Patton and Miss Augusta Porter were hostesses to the circle.

The president, Miss Marion Hull Smith, presided at the meeting and she appointed the following girls as committee chairmen of the dance: Miss Ruth Rowbotham is general dance chairman; Miss Catherine Ginn is ticket chairman; Miss Elsie Prater is chairman of the orchestra committee, and Miss Frances Howard is in charge of securing a place for the dance. Other members of the dance committee are Misses Marion Hull Smith and Yolande Gwin.

Assisting in arrangements will be the other officers of the club who are: Misses Margaret Harris, vice president; Ruth Rowbotham, secretary; and Littel Funkhouser, treasurer.

Members of the Young Girls' Circle include: Misses Frances Barnett, Helen Cody, Myra Boynton, Jane Dillon, Anna Ewing, Littel Funkhouser, Frances Howard, Yolande Gwin, Margaret Harris, Marguerite Hohnett, Katherine Howell, Mary Jerigan, Cecil Jewell, Billy Johnson, Lena Knox, Sara Law, Henrietta Mikell, Adair McCarty, Catherine Norcross, Augusta Porter, Martha Powell, Elsie Prater, Ruth Rowbotham, Frances Spaulding, Marion Hull Smith, Hannah Sterne, Jane Small, Margaret Stovall, Virginia Turner, Marion Wolff, Boots Walker, Martha Lewis, Pam Johnson, Margaret Kelley, Teresa Wade Atkinson, Catherine Ginn, Sarah DeSaussure and Elizabeth Dodd.

The next meeting of the circle will be held at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, January 13, with Miss Jane Dillon at her home on Piedmont road.

Mrs. Powell's Tea.

Mrs. Arthur G. Powell was hostess at tea Saturday afternoon at the Piedmont Driving Club in compliment to Mrs. William Jay McKenna, of Boston, and Mrs. Samuel H. Sibley, of Marietta. Mrs. Clarence Laws assisted her mother in entertaining.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelt.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kelt kept open house Sunday afternoon at their home in Decatur. Fifty friends called between the hours of 4 and 6 o'clock. The house was adorned with blooming plants, including azaleas, narcissi and freesias.

Chi Phi Dance.

Gamma chapter of the Chi Phi fraternity at Emory will entertain at a dance Friday, January 16, at the Piedmont Driving Club. The guests will include several hundred members of the younger social contingent.

Harper-Jeffers.

VILLA RICA, Ga., Jan. 5.—The marriage of Miss Harriet E. Harper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Harper, of Villa Rica, took place at the home of the bride's parents last Tuesday. The ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. Smith, pastor of the Baptist church at Villa Rica.

To Entertain Clubs.

Mrs. James D. Robinson entertains Thursday afternoon, January 8, at 3 o'clock at her home on Ponce de Leon avenue in complimenting members of the Nineteenth Century History class. Every Saturday Club, Friday Morning Reading Club and Nineteenth Century Reading Club. Mrs. Merrill Hutchinson, well-known reader, will read a new play.

Fine Arts Club.

Fine Arts Club, of Atlanta, will present Arthur Gutterman in a lecture on "Modern American Poetry" at the Driving Club Wednesday afternoon, at 3 o'clock. Guest cards may be secured for $1 each from Mrs. M. Hines Roberts, 1208 Piedmont avenue, apartment 20, Henshaw 7311.

... but you can be positive that every Certified Virgin Diamond is a blue-white, carefully graded gem of exceptional brilliancy, and what is more important, direct from the mines, never before owned or worn. Virgin Diamonds of guaranteed quality, may be secured from $25 to $2,500.

ALL Fine Diamonds are not necessarily VIRGIN
DIAMONDS
Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

Sold exclusively through Authorized Virgin Diamond Dealers

VIRGIN
DIAMONDS

TIMMS JEWELRY CO.
Main Branch: Since 1887
42 Broad St., Atlanta, Ga.

E. A. MORGAN
118 Hunter St., S. W.
Atlanta, Ga.
Established Twenty-five Years

Win $3000 or $1800 Buick Sedan
and $1200 Additional

Many Big Prizes offered you now—more than $7000.00 distributed in 30 Grand Prizes—Someone surely wins Big $1800.00 Buick Sedan. If prompt $1200.00 additional. You can share in these Big Prizes. We paid S. H. Bennett $1495.00, C. L. Kitter $1050.00. These and hundreds of other people first answered my advertisement and won prizes, one as high as $3500.00.

Find 5 Faces

Twilight on this winter scene makes strange shadows, some look exactly like girls' faces. How many can you find? Look in the trees, on the windows and snow drifts. SHARP EYES CAN WIN. Be Careful. Make No Mistake. If you are successful in finding 5 Faces, mark each with a circle. Rush it to me with your name and address by First Mail. Enter for this $1800.00 Big Buick "3" Sedan, delivered by nearest Buick dealer, and $1200.00 Extra for Promptness, or $3000.00 if you prefer all cash.

$1200.00 CASH EXTRA FOR PROMPTNESS

If prompt I'll pay the winner of First Prize $1200.00 Cash Extra. If you take an active part, you are sure to be rewarded—Duplicate prizes in case of ties. No matter who you are—try for Big $3000.00 First Prize. Send no money—nothing to buy now or later. State which you want, $3000.00 Cash or Buick Sedan and $1200.00. Bigger than ever. If you want to win, send for easy plan—no obligation. Address—L. M. STONE, Mgr., 844 W. Adams Street, Dept. 276, CHICAGO, ILL.

WOMEN'S MEETINGS

TUESDAY, JANUARY 6.

Atlanta Junior League meets at 3 o'clock at the Piedmont Driving Club.

Executive board of O'Keefe Junior High School P. T. A. meets at 10 o'clock this morning in room 20 at the school.

Fulton Chapter, U. D. C., meets in the pine room of the Ansley hotel at 2:30 o'clock.

Tenth Street School Parent-Teacher Association meets at 3 o'clock.

Garden division of the Decatur Woman's Club meets in the clubhouse at 3 o'clock.

Atlanta Alumnae Club of the Pi Beta Phi fraternity meets at the home of Martha Pratt, 15 Kensington road in Avondale Estates at 2:30 o'clock.

T. E. L. class, of Cascade Baptist church, meets in the class room, corner Beecher street and Westmont road, at 11 o'clock.

Methodist Board of City Missions meets at 10:30 o'clock at the Good Will Industries at 600 Highland avenue, N. E.

Electa Chapter No. 6, O. E. S., meets this evening at 7:30 o'clock at Red Men's Wigwam, Central avenue.

Atlanta Smith College Club meets for lunch at Rich's tea room at 1 o'clock.

Atlanta Division No. 195, G. I. A. to B. of L. L., meets at 2:30 o'clock at Red Men's Wigwam, 160 Central avenue, S. E.

Milton Avenue P. T. A. meets at 2:30 o'clock in the school auditorium.

R. L. Ramsey will talk on "Citizenship" at the Luckie Street School P. T. A. meeting at 2:30 o'clock in the school auditorium.

Holy Trinity Church School P. T. A. meets in the parish house at 3 o'clock.

Executive board of the Holy Trinity Church School P. T. A. meets at 2:30 o'clock at the parish house.

Pre-School Study Group of Glenwood school meets at the home of the president, Mrs. J. O. Bowen, 526 Ponce de Leon place.

Ladies' Aid Society of Decatur Christian church meets at 10 o'clock.

Women's Auxiliary of St. Philip's cathedral meets at the home of its president, Mrs. William Nicolson, Sr., 821 Piedmont avenue, N. E., at 3 o'clock.

Young Woman's Auxiliary of All Saints' church meets at 6 o'clock in the parish house.

Perennial Garden Club meets at 10:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. John L. Harper, 1996 Ponce de Leon avenue.

Executive Board of Baptist Women's Missionary Union of Georgia meets at 12:15 o'clock in the W. M. U. rooms at headquarters in the Palmer building, Mrs. W. J. Neel, president, presiding.

Garden Hills Woman's Club meets at the home of Mrs. D. O. Martin, 430 East Wesley avenue, at 2:30 o'clock.

Garden division of the Decatur Woman's Club meets in the clubhouse at 3 o'clock.

Robert E. Lee Chapter, U. D. C., College Park, meets at 3:30 o'clock in the home of Mrs. V. C. Mason on Virginia avenue in College Park.

Cascade Chapter No. 274, O. E. S., meets at 7:30 o'clock in the Menic hall, corner Beecher street and Cascade avenue.

Atlanta Bird Club meets at 7:30 o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce building on Pryor street.

Bridge Club Honored.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Johnson entertained recently at their home on Lucile avenue, West End, in compliment to members of the Biltmore Club. A sewing unit, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were assisted in entertaining by their daughter, Miss Eleanor Johnson, Miss Mary Henderson and their mother, Mrs. Joseph H. Head. The guests included: Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Blacklock, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Bankston, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Wilson, Rev. and Mrs. Iby Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. O'Neal, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Head and Mrs. Virginia Donohoe and Mrs. B. D. Mans-ton.

Miss Louise Martin Weds Dr. John Walker in Boston

Mrs. John Hicks Walker, who before her marriage December 31 was Miss Louise Janice Martin, beautiful young daughter of Mrs. Maude Martin, of Cambridge avenue. Photograph by Bascom Biggers.

Mrs. Maude Martin, of Cambridge avenue, announces the marriage of her daughter, Louise Janice, to Dr. John Walker, of Boston, who is now in residence at the home of the bridegroom's brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Haynes Walker, in Boston. The marriage service was read by the Rev. T. Clinton Brockway, father of Mrs. Haynes Walker, and was witnessed by a smug group of friends.

The beautiful young bride was given in marriage by Haynes Walker, and Dr. Walker had as his best man his brother, Dr. Thomas Walker, of Boston, Mass.

Mrs. Walker as Miss Martin has been one of Atlanta's most popular young belles. She received her education in the city schools and has been an admired member of the college contingent.

Of the brunette type of diminutive beauty, her vivacious charm and piquancy have made her a distinctive figure in social circles. As president of the Black Cat Social Club, she has been an able executive and is one of the organization's most popular members.

Dr. Walker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Walker, prominent Atlanta citizens. He received his bachelor of arts and masters degrees at Emory University and graduated in medicine at Harvard University. Dr. Walker is specializing in surgery at the Children's hospital in Boston, where he and his bride will reside until the completion of his surgical course next December. They will then return to Atlanta to make their home.

Atlanta Senior Music Club Presents Juniors in Program, January 7

Atlanta Senior Music Club presents a program by the Atlanta Junior Music Club Wednesday, January 7, at 10:30 o'clock, in the West End auditorium, being the first "morning music" of 1931, and the first program given by the junior club before the senior club. Referring to newspaper files of September 12, 1915, a call was issued by Mrs. L. F. Thompson, Miss Ole Robinson, John Doi and Mrs. Albert Herzig to form a club of musical organization, for musicians and music lovers to meet Wednesday, September 15, in Cable hall, to form a women's music study club, which later became the Atlanta Music Study Club and finally the Atlanta Music Club. The formation of this club emanated from a suggestion given by the music division of the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs, with which body it soon affiliated.

Its purpose was to provide study classes, good concerts by local artists and to guarantee outside artist concerts. Miss Ole Robinson was appointed provisional secretary and Mrs. John Doi, president.

Mrs. M. W. O'Brien, vice president; Mrs. Walter Bedard, secretary; Miss Mary K. Jerome, corresponding secretary; Miss Edith Hall, treasurer; Mrs. W. P. Outen, librarian; Mrs. Theodora Morgan-Stephens, current events; Wilford Watters, choral director; Mrs. W. A. Maddox, choral registrar. The program committee was composed of Mrs. Percy Cox, chairman; Miss Evelyn Jackson, Mrs. Armond Carro, Miss Edith Hall and Miss L. Lee Robinson. On Mrs. Doi's departure from Atlanta to make her home in another city, Mrs. Armond Carroll was elected president. Mrs. Carroll is responsible for the artist concert series begun in 1916, and also for the first call for a juvenile department, given before the senior club at Eggleston hall September 25, 1918, with Miss Evelyn Jackson appointed as director. Miss Aileen Stephens and Walter Bedard were the first junior members registered. The presents of the senior club have been: Lesdames John Doi, Armond Carroll, Charles Downman, De Los Hill, George Wright, Cliff C. Hatcher, Wilford Watters, and the present incumbent, Mrs. Walter Bedard. Junior counselors following Miss Evelyn Jackson were: Miss Madeline Keipp, Mrs. P. and Mrs. Jackson, Miss Ruth Gaines, Mrs. G. B. Bache, Miss Lena Daniel, Mrs. Bonita Crowe and Mrs. David E. Rouse. In 1929, the Atlanta Music Club, under Mrs. Wilmer L. Moore's presidency, affiliated with the Civic Music Association of Chicago, under whose auspices the present artist concerts are brought on. Eugene Black is president of the Atlanta division of this association and Mrs. Moore is vice president.

The program will present the chorus, mandolin club and symphony orchestra, directed by Mrs. Rouse, W. B. Griffith and W. F. Chase, together with soloists from the Junior Music Club. Those taking part are: Miriam Davis, Bowen David, Jr.,

Miss Dorothy Martin Celebrates Birthday

Mrs. A. H. Martin entertained yesterday at her home on Parkway drive in compliment to her daughter, Miss Dorothy Reid Martin, who celebrated her tenth birthday anniversary. Mesdames Olin Barfield and James F. Clarke, maternal aunts of the honor guest, assisted in entertaining. The table was overlaid with a lace cloth and a red basket filled with varicolored balloons adorned the center, the favors being tied with ribbons and fastened at the end of the balloons. The place cards bore the guests' initials and were lettered in red upon white cards.

The guests included Misses Elsie Power, Elizabeth Martin, Edith Raymond, Jean Harris, Rose Marie Ellsworth, Thelma Kerr, Martha Beck, Dorothy Garland, Dorothy Twitty, Ella Gregg Yarbrough, Jewell Yarbrough, Sallie Powell, Regina Pelton, Mary Crumley, Mabel Conger and Mr. Mangum, David Mangum, Eugene Ford, Bobby Jackson, Rupert the Kelly, Buddie Raymond, Willis Sanders and George Ellsworth.

Mrs. Harper Fetes Miss Hannah Sterne

Miss Hannah Sterne, president of this season's debutante Club, will be honor guest Wednesday at 1 o'clock at a luncheon to be given by Mrs. J. N. Harper at her home, 271 Fifteenth street in Ansley Park. Miss Sterne, who is one of this season's most feted deb, has been honored at a series of parties during the past year.

Invited for luncheon Wednesday will be Misses Sterne, Sue Brown Sterne, Mary Cox Bryan, Augusta Porter, Lena Knox, Sarah DeSaussure, Laura Hoke, Boyce, Lokey, Phoebe Rhett and Marion Peacock.

Decatur O. E. S.

Decatur Chapter No. 148 O. E. S. meets in the Masonic temple this evening at 7:30 o'clock. The public is invited to the installation of the 1931 officers, which will follow a short business meeting, and Mrs. Donna Lawhon will be the presiding officer during the installation.

Burt-Smith.

BARNESVILLE, Ga., Jan. 5.—Mr. and Mrs. Luther Anderson Burt, of Lamar county, announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary Elizabeth, to Rufus Smith, formerly of Lamar, now of Cleveland, Fla. The wedding took place at the Methodist parsonage in Barnesville, where Rev. Marvin Williams officiated. The wedding was kept secret until several days ago.

Mrs. Smith is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burt, and graduated from Gordon Institute in Barnesville in 1927. She attended school here several years, and is a blonde of unusual loveliness.

Mr. Smith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Smith. He is a graduate of Tri-State College, receiving the degree of Bachelor of Science in civil engineering, and later attended the Georgia School of Technology. He is a member of the Phi Delta Kappa fraternity, and of the Western Society of Engineers. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will leave in the near future for their home in Cleveland, Fla., where Mr. Smith is connected with the United States engineers.

Dr. Walker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Walker, prominent Atlanta citizens. He received his bachelor of arts and masters degrees at Emory University and graduated in medicine at Harvard University. Dr. Walker is specializing in surgery at the Children's hospital in Boston, where he and his bride will reside until the completion of his surgical course next December. They will then return to Atlanta to make their home.

Dr. Walker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Walker, prominent Atlanta citizens. He received his bachelor of arts and masters degrees at Emory University and graduated in medicine at Harvard University. Dr. Walker is specializing in surgery at the Children's hospital in Boston, where he and his bride will reside until the completion of his surgical course next December. They will then return to Atlanta to make their home.

Dr. Walker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Walker, prominent Atlanta citizens. He received his bachelor of arts and masters degrees at Emory University and graduated in medicine at Harvard University. Dr. Walker is specializing in surgery at the Children's hospital in Boston, where he and his bride will reside until the completion of his surgical course next December. They will then return to Atlanta to make their home.

Dr. Walker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Walker, prominent Atlanta citizens. He received his bachelor of arts and masters degrees at Emory University and graduated in medicine at Harvard University. Dr. Walker is specializing in surgery at the Children's hospital in Boston, where he and his bride will reside until the completion of his surgical course next December. They will then return to Atlanta to make their home.

Dr. Walker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Walker, prominent Atlanta citizens. He received his bachelor of arts and masters degrees at Emory University and graduated in medicine at Harvard University. Dr. Walker is specializing in surgery at the Children's hospital in Boston, where he and his bride will reside until the completion of his surgical course next December. They will then return to Atlanta to make their home.

Dr. Walker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Walker, prominent Atlanta citizens. He received his bachelor of arts and masters degrees at Emory University and graduated in medicine at Harvard University. Dr. Walker is specializing in surgery at the Children's hospital in Boston, where he and his bride will reside until the completion of his surgical course next December. They will then return to Atlanta to make their home.

Dr. Walker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Walker, prominent Atlanta citizens. He received his bachelor of arts and masters degrees at Emory University and graduated in medicine at Harvard University. Dr. Walker is specializing in surgery at the Children's hospital in Boston, where he and his bride will reside until the completion of his surgical course next December. They will then return to Atlanta to make their home.

Dr. Walker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Walker, prominent Atlanta citizens. He received his bachelor of arts and masters degrees at Emory University and graduated in medicine at Harvard University. Dr. Walker is specializing in surgery at the Children's hospital in Boston, where he and his bride will reside until the completion of his surgical course next December. They will then return to Atlanta to make their home.

Dr. Walker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Walker, prominent Atlanta citizens. He received his bachelor of arts and masters degrees at Emory University and graduated in medicine at Harvard University. Dr. Walker is specializing in surgery at the Children's hospital in Boston, where he and his bride will reside until the completion of his surgical course next December. They will then return to Atlanta to make their home.

Dr. Walker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Walker, prominent Atlanta citizens. He received his bachelor of arts and masters degrees at Emory University and graduated in medicine at Harvard University. Dr. Walker is specializing in surgery at the Children's hospital in Boston, where he and his bride will reside until the completion of his surgical course next December. They will then return to Atlanta to make their home.

Dr. Walker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Walker, prominent Atlanta citizens. He received his bachelor of arts and masters degrees at Emory University and graduated in medicine at Harvard University. Dr. Walker is specializing in surgery at the Children's hospital in Boston, where he and his bride will reside until the completion of his surgical course next December. They will then return to Atlanta to make their home.

Dr. Walker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Walker, prominent Atlanta citizens. He received his bachelor of arts and masters degrees at Emory University and graduated in medicine at Harvard University. Dr. Walker is specializing in surgery at the Children's hospital in Boston, where he and his bride will reside until the completion of his surgical course next December. They will then return to Atlanta to make their home.

Dr. Walker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Walker, prominent Atlanta citizens. He received his bachelor of arts and masters degrees at Emory University and graduated in medicine at Harvard University. Dr. Walker is specializing in surgery at the Children's hospital in Boston, where he and his bride will reside until the completion of his surgical course next December. They will then return to Atlanta to make their home.

Dr. Walker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Walker, prominent Atlanta citizens. He received his bachelor of arts and masters degrees at Emory University and graduated in medicine at Harvard University. Dr. Walker is specializing in surgery at the Children's hospital in Boston, where he and his bride will reside until the completion of his surgical course next December. They will then return to Atlanta to make their home.

Dr. Walker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Walker, prominent Atlanta citizens. He received his bachelor of arts and masters degrees at Emory University and graduated in medicine at Harvard University. Dr. Walker is specializing in surgery at the Children's hospital in Boston, where he and his bride will reside until the completion of his surgical course next December. They will then return to Atlanta to make their home.

Dr. Walker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Walker, prominent Atlanta citizens. He received his bachelor of arts and masters degrees at Emory University and graduated in medicine at Harvard University. Dr. Walker is specializing in surgery at the Children's hospital in Boston, where he and his bride will reside until the completion of his surgical course next December. They will then return to Atlanta to make their home.

Dr. Walker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Walker, prominent Atlanta citizens. He received his bachelor of arts and masters degrees at Emory University and graduated in medicine at Harvard University. Dr. Walker is specializing in surgery at the Children's hospital in Boston, where he and his bride will reside until the completion of his surgical course next December. They will then return to Atlanta to make their home.

Dr. Walker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Walker, prominent Atlanta citizens. He received his bachelor of arts and masters degrees at Emory University and graduated in medicine at Harvard University. Dr. Walker is specializing in surgery at the Children's hospital in Boston, where he and his bride will reside until the completion of his surgical course next December. They will then return to Atlanta to make their home.

Business and Professional Women's National President To Speak Here

Mrs. Louis J. Roos, of Savannah, president of the Georgia Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, announces that Miss Marian McClench, president of the national federation, will be the guest of the Georgia clubs in January. Miss McClench will speak in Macon, January 28, and in Atlanta January 29. Other speaking dates will be announced later.

"The work of our federation during the past year has been indeed gratifying," said Mrs. Roos, "during 1930 we wish to concentrate more upon the increasing of membership, especially upon the organization of new clubs. I wish the each club already federated would federate at least one other club between now and the time of the state convention in Augusta in May. Miss McClench is a woman of sterling ability and holds the welfare of women as her main objective in life. It is a privilege to have her as our guest this month."

A new trophy is being offered this year by Miss Leita Thompson, of the Atlanta club, to the club having the best publicity report based upon the following points: 1, for the best or most literary piece of newspaper publicity, 25 points; 2, for the best standing or original piece of newspaper publicity, 25 points; 3, for the most attractive scrapbook, 25 points; 4, for the greatest number of "pages" of newspaper publicity, one daily paper basis of measurement, 25 points.

Other trophies are: The attendance trophy given by the Atlanta club to the club having the greatest per cent of its membership at the convention; the membership trophy, given by the Albany club to the club having the greatest increase in membership; the Frances Stebbins trophy, given by the Augusta club to the club presenting the best annual report; the federation of clubs trophy, given by the Savannah club to the club federating the greatest number of new clubs; the insurance trophy, given by Mrs. Blanche S. Richy, of the Atlanta club, to the club having 100 per cent of its membership insured, and the emblem trophy, given by Miss Ada Booth, of the Atlanta club, to the club whose membership shows the greatest percentage of emblem wearers.

Pioneer Society. Woman's Pioneer Society meets at 2 o'clock, and as this is the first meeting of the year the annual election of officers will take place, and members urged to attend.

MRS. ROOSEVELT VISITS EX-PRESIDENT'S GRAVE
OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Jan. 5.—(AP) To carry out a custom she has observed ever since her husband's death, Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt returned today to Sagamore Hill from San Juan, where she spent Christmas with her son, Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., governor of Porto Rico.

Twelve years ago tomorrow Theodore Roosevelt died, and his widow has spent each anniversary at the home which all through his public life formed a quiet background for his vigorous personality. On many occasions she has received the pilgrims who journey on that day to his grave.

Following the ceremony Dr. and Mrs. Griffin left for a motor trip to points of interest in Florida and upon their return they will take possession of their apartment in the Huntington apartments, Peachtree road and Huntington road. They will be attractive acquisitions of the young married set of Atlanta society.

SPECIAL SALE

SPORTS AND STREET DRESSES

AT HALF PRICE

AFTERNOON AND EVENING

FRANCELE'S

FOX THEATER BUILDING

HEAD ACIES

"I HAD indigestion, and I would have an uneasy feeling in my stomach, and at times would have a tightness in my chest, and at times would have a headache," writes Mr. M. L. Brown, 147 O'Neal Ave., Hopkinsville, Ky.

"This was some time ago. I decided to try Black-Draught, as I heard quite a lot about it. Black-Draught relieved this indigestion and my headaches. So now I keep it to take when necessary."

LAST year, I began having sick headaches, and these made me very nervous," writes Mrs. M. L. Brown. "My eyes would burn and I did not feel at all equal to my work. I decided to take Black-Draught, as I felt so dull and tired. I did not take but about three small doses a week. I kept this up for a few weeks, and I certainly did feel fine. It seemed to rid my system of impurities, clearing up my head, and I felt much better."

The above testimonials were given freely. No pay has been given or promised for their use.

Theford's Black-Draught

for INDIGESTION, CONSTIPATION, BILIOUSNESS

Wide doors, full-width seats, ample leg-room and generous head-room are important items of Rare Riding Comfort. Hudson and Essex are roomy cars, easy to ride in, easy to drive and easy on your pocket-book.

$595 THE NEW ESSEX SUPER SIX Coach or Business Coupe

$875 THE GREATER HUDSON 8 Business Coupe Coach $895

Other body models at attractively priced. Special equipment extra. All prices T.O.B. Detroit

The program will present the chorus, mandolin club and symphony orchestra, directed by Mrs. Rouse, W. B. Griffith and W. F. Chase, together with soloists from the Junior Music Club. Those taking part are: Miriam Davis, Bowen David, Jr.,

The program will present the chorus, mandolin club and symphony orchestra, directed by Mrs. Rouse, W. B. Griffith and W. F. Chase, together with soloists from the Junior Music Club. Those taking part are: Miriam Davis, Bowen David, Jr.,

The program will present the chorus, mandolin club and symphony orchestra, directed by Mrs. Rouse, W. B. Griffith and W. F. Chase, together with soloists from the Junior Music Club. Those taking part are: Miriam Davis, Bowen David, Jr.,

The program will present the chorus, mandolin club and symphony orchestra, directed by Mrs. Rouse, W. B. Griffith and W. F. Chase, together with soloists from the Junior Music Club. Those taking part are: Miriam Davis, Bowen David, Jr.,

The program will present the chorus, mandolin club and symphony orchestra, directed by Mrs. Rouse, W. B. Griffith and W. F. Chase, together with soloists from the Junior Music Club. Those taking part are: Miriam Davis, Bowen David, Jr.,

The program will present the chorus, mandolin club and symphony orchestra, directed by Mrs. Rouse, W. B. Griffith and W. F. Chase, together with soloists from the Junior Music Club. Those taking part are: Miriam Davis, Bowen David, Jr.,

The program will present the chorus, mandolin club and symphony orchestra, directed by Mrs. Rouse, W. B. Griffith and W. F. Chase, together with soloists from the Junior Music Club. Those taking part are: Miriam Davis, Bowen David, Jr.,

The program will present the chorus, mandolin club and symphony orchestra, directed by Mrs. Rouse, W. B. Griffith and W. F. Chase, together with soloists from the Junior Music Club. Those taking part are: Miriam Davis, Bowen David, Jr.,

Social Items

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hull, whose marriage was a brilliant event of Saturday in Bloomfield Hills, Detroit, Mich., have arrived in Atlanta and have taken possession of their apartment at 2814 Peachtree road. Mrs. Hull, before her marriage, was Miss Nora Glancy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred R. Glancy, of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hume, of Greensboro, N. C., announce the birth of twin daughters Sunday, January 4, at Georgia Baptist hospital, who have been given the names, Beverly Ann and Barbara Wilsell. Mrs. Hume was formerly Miss Willette Elrod, of Atlanta.

Mrs. Warren Lanham, of Augusta, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. M. Berry.

Miss Betty Mason, of Laurel, Miss., who has been the guest of Miss Helen Hivings at her home on Wesley avenue, N. E., after spending the past few weeks with friends and relatives in Virginia.

Miss Jean Lambkin has returned to her home at 1255 Ponce de Leon avenue, N. E., after spending the past few weeks with friends and relatives in Virginia.

Misses Josephine and Maud Betts have returned to their studies at G. S. C. W. after spending the holidays with relatives in Atlanta.

Johnny Allison returned to his home in Atlanta this week after spending the past week in Washington, D. C., and Virginia as guest of friends.

Miss Louise Ealey returned to Atlanta Monday from Windsor, Ga., where she spent the past week with relatives.

Miss Irene Boyd returned to Atlanta from Anderson, S. C., her former home, and is at present with friends at 907 Ponce de Leon avenue.

Russell Fairbanks has returned to his home on Ponce de Leon avenue from a hunting trip in south Georgia.

Misses Ruby and Lorraine Mansfield, who have been spending the past week with relatives on Cypress street, N. E., have returned to their home at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga.

Misses Ethel Massengale, Alice May Massengale, Viola Parks and Gertrude Riley will motor to Thomas, Ga., where they will spend the week-end as guests of Miss Mary Dalins.

W. H. Danforth, R. C. Van Arnsdale, and Frank C. Crowley, of Boston, Mass., are at the Georgian Terrace.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Pottinger have returned from Savannah, Ga.

Miss Louise Richardson has returned from New Orleans, La., where she visited Miss Marjorie Stair, and leaves this week to resume her studies at Rosemary Hall in Greenwich, Conn. Her sister, Miss Josephine Richardson, left Sunday for New York, where she is a student at Miss Nightingale's school.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Holland have returned to their home in Birmingham, Ala., after spending a week with their mother, Mrs. Frank Holland, and sister, Mrs. Charles McAllister, at their home on Eleventh street.

Mrs. J. N. Hirsch and son, Harold Hirsch, returned Sunday from New York where they spent the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Alman have returned from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Thompson, at Warm Springs, Georgia.

Mrs. Charles J. Miller has returned from a visit to relatives in Columbus, Ga.

Miss Sarah Bates has returned from Birmingham, Ala., where she visited Miss Elsie Prevett.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brantley, of Savannah, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lucas at their home on West Peachtree street.

Miss Estelle Boynton has returned to Baltimore, Md., where she is a student at Johns Hopkins University in the medical school.

Miss Laura Payne Smith returned yesterday to Washington, D. C., to resume her studies at the Visitation convent, after spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Smith, Jr., at their home on Tuxedo road.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jackson, of Mount Vernon, N. Y., are at the Georgian Terrace.

Mrs. W. S. Elkin is convalescing from a recent attack of influenza at the Georgian Terrace.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Saul have leased an apartment in the Ponce de Leon, and are being extended cordial welcome upon their return to Atlanta from Dallas, Texas. Mrs. Saul was formerly Miss Addie Maude, of Atlanta.

Mrs. Edward H. Inman is spending ten days in Miami, Fla.

Misses Pattie Porter, Jean Lucas, Lydia Hoke, Peggy Underwood, Anne Wynne Fleming, Louisa Candler, Frances Boykin, Sarah Adair, and Annie McCarley returned Sunday to Hollins College, Hollins, Va., where they will resume their studies after spending the holidays in Atlanta.

Mrs. Sarah D. Carlisle, member of the faculty of Winthrop College, is visiting relatives in Atlanta.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Potts motored to Miami Beach, Fla., last week, where they will spend the month of January. Mr. Potts is recuperating from a recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Sauer, of Rochester, N. Y., are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Miner, at their home on Peachtree way, in Garden Hills.

Mrs. E. E. Dallas, Misses Palmer Dallas and Catherine Norcross left by motor Sunday for New York city, where they will attend the wedding of Miss Betty Davidson and Buddy Holland, which takes place Thursday, January 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Taylor, Jr., and children, Betty and Bob, have returned from New York city, where they spent the past week as the guests of Dr. and Mrs. T. N. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Taylor, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Coogle and son, Billie, have returned after spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Baker, at the New Telfair hotel, Helena, Ga.

J. A. Anthony, of Chicago, Ill.; M. M. Bondeley, of Philadelphia, Pa.; Mrs. Warren Bigelow, of Detroit, Mich.; Edson E. Bigelow, of Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. Viola Bowden, of Detroit, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. George E. Browne, of New York, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Dave Finlayson, of Columbus, Ga.; Colonel and Mrs. Oscar Foley, of Chattanooga, Tenn.; Clayton E. Gibbs, of New York, N. Y.; E. S. Hammond, of New Orleans, La.; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hanna, of Dayton, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Hoff, of New York, N. Y.; Pat Laurendine, of Mobile, Ala.; W. P. Melton, of St. Louis, Mo.; William Montague, of Chattanooga, Tenn.; C. F. Hedden, of Sea Island Beach, Ga.; Charles C. Ross, of Savannah, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Staats, of Kent, Conn.; and J. V. Wood, of Mobile, Ala., are at the Biltmore.

Miss Ruth Stafford has returned to Macon after a visit to her sister, Mrs. T. H. Robinson, at her home on Northview avenue, in Morningside.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Flaherty are among the Atlantans who are guests at the Roosevelt hotel in New York.

John Nathan, of Detroit, Mich., formerly of Macon, Ind., has moved to Atlanta for permanent residence and is making his home on Piedmont avenue.

Miss Ida Sadler leaves the middle of January to visit Mrs. Charlton Theus and will be numbered among the visiting belles attending the Cotillion Club dance, to be given at the Oglethorpe Club Friday evening, January 16.

Misses Ruth Miller and Myra Boynton have returned to Atlanta after spending the past three months in Miami, Fla., and Miss Miller will spend the month of January with Mr. Boynton at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Charles I. Boynton, on Habersham road.

Miss Margaret Darrington continues ill at her home on La France street.

U. S. BOND SALE PROFITS TAXABLE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Profits from the sale of federal and state bonds today were ruled subject to state and federal taxes by the supreme court.

The government contended such taxes would not constitute an illegal burden on the securities and conceded that should its position be sustained the states would be empowered to tax profits from federal bonds.

The lower courts held a tax on profits would, in effect, be a tax on the public securities involved and that such taxes unconstitutional under the provision of the constitution prohibiting the imposition of undue burdens on federal, state and municipal securities.

W. LAMAR ETHERIDGE RITES HELD MONDAY

Last rites for W. Lamar Etheridge, 41, of 1360 Fairview road, N. E., who died Sunday afternoon at a private hospital, were conducted Monday afternoon at Spring Hill chapel by the Rev. E. M. Potat. Interment was at Jackson, Ga.

Pallbearers were Paul Eggle, John J. Vogel, Grady Lee, E. E. Davis, John Spalding, J. Glen Dodson, A. W. Almond and A. Adair.

Mr. Etheridge, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Etheridge, was a buyer for the Social Circle Cotton Company. He was a graduate of Mercer University, a member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity, the Druid Hills Golf Club, and the Second Baptist church. In addition to his parents, his widow and two sons survive him.

Cross Sections of Life In Gate City of South

Dr. W. H. Major, pastor of the Capitol Avenue Baptist church, will speak at 12:15 o'clock today in the Wesley Memorial Methodist church on the subject of "Unemployment." This will be the second of a series of union noon prayer services arranged by the Christian Council of Atlanta in observance of the universal week of prayer.

Lieutenant C. R. Price, personnel officer of the sixth naval district, will represent this district and the Charleston district at the United States naval reserve inspection board, which will inspect the local battalion of naval reserves tonight at 412 West Peachtree street.

Atlanta Civilians will devote their meeting at 12:30 o'clock today at the Atlanta Athletic Club to routine business. The program will consist of T. J. Miller, Fred Shaefer and Will Griffith, will be featured by committee reports.

Rev. Ernest Risley will resume the series of church liturgies of the St. Luke's Episcopal church at 10 o'clock this morning. The lectures will be at the church, corner Peachtree and Alexander streets.

Burns Club members will hold their annual business meeting at 8 o'clock Wednesday night in the Burns cottage. Election of officers will feature the session. Preceding the regular session, the Burns Club will convene at 6:30 to 7:15 o'clock. Dr. W. F. Melton is retiring president.

Teachers and officers council of the Grant Park Baptist church will hold its first meeting of the year at 6:30 today at the church. A. C. Hopkins, general superintendent, will have charge.

John L. Cone, Atlanta's new recorder, took charge of the second division of police court at 4:30 Monday afternoon, succeeding Judge Murphy M. Holloway.

Samuel C. Dobbs, Atlanta capitalist and former president of the Coca-Cola Company, who was injured Sunday morning when his automobile skidded on a wet pavement and crashed into a concrete abutment near Columbia, Monday was reported improved. It was said at his apartments, 1050 Ponce de Leon avenue, that he probably would be out in a few days.

Christian Endeavor district meeting of 1931, to be held at 6:30 to 7:30 p. m. at the Christian church of Rome, Ga., will be attended by a large number of Atlantans. The delegation will leave the Central Presbyterian church in automobiles at 4:30 this afternoon.

Herbert Smith, of 25 Regent street, East Point, who was struck down Sunday night by a "hit-and-run" motorist when he alighted from his automobile on Fair street near Boulevard to investigate a knock in the motor, incurred a fractured leg, it was reported Monday at Grady hospital.

Yeggmen who early Monday raided the safe of the J. M. Alexander Company hardware store at 14 Forsyth street obtained approximately $100 in cash, a police report said.

Mrs. S. S. Carlisle, 40, of 467 Kelly street, sustained only a slight injury Monday morning at Washington and Mitchell when a piece of slate fell on her head, attendants at Grady hospital said. The slate, it was said, fell from the belfry of the Second Baptist church. The force of the blow was broken by Mrs. Carlisle's hat.

United Congregational church members will hold their annual meeting and dinner at 7 o'clock Wednesday night at the Atlanta when the Leon apartments. Reports of the year's activities of the church societies will be made. The Rev. William T. McElveen is pastor.

Earle R. Greene, president, will preside at the opening meeting of the Atlanta Bird Club for 1931 at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the Chamber of Commerce. Election of officers will feature the session.

Dr. Gordon Singleton, newly-elected president of the Atlanta Kiwanis Club, will be installed at 12:30 o'clock today in the Ansley hotel. Other officers to be inducted at the session are: William J. Hammond, first vice president; Sinclair Jacobs, second vice president; Arthur W. Falkenberg, trustee; Roy L. Wallace, treasurer; and Dean S. Taden, secretary, and 10 new directors.

Dr. T. F. Abercrombie, state commissioner of health, will address the Lion Club at 12:30 o'clock today in the Henry Grady hotel on "What the State Board of Health is Doing for Georgia."

Harry S. McCowan will be installed as president of the Atlanta Exchange Club for 1931 at 12:30 o'clock today in the Henry Grady hotel. Others to be inducted into office are: D. McKay Solenberg, first vice president; T. V. Morrison, second vice president; Sam Hodges, third vice president; and Dr. Bonar A. Olds, secretary-treasurer.

Dr. Charles E. Barker, of Grand Rapids, Mich., physician to the late William Howard Taft, will speak to the Rotary Club at 12:30 o'clock today in the Capital City Club. Other addresses to be made by Dr. Barker Tuesday will be at the O'Keefe Junior High school for mothers and daughters at 2 o'clock, and for fathers and sons at 7:30 o'clock.

Riley D. Powell, of Lawrenceville, a junior at Davidson College, Davidson, N. C., has been elected a member of Alpha Phi Epsilon forensic fraternity. Young Powell is a graduate of the Lawrenceville High school, class of 1927, and of the Davidson School for Boys at Rome, class of 1928. He is a member of the Davidson Glee Club.

W. W. Gaines, president of the board of education, and Willis A. Sutton, superintendent of schools, Monday extended their formal thanks to Walter Rich, president of the Rich, Inc., for volunteering to cash December pay checks for Atlanta school teachers previous to January 1, the date they were due. It was estimated that Rich's cashed $260,000 in teachers' checks during the holidays.

Robert B. Webster, federal prisoner serving sentence from DeWare for fraud, Monday filed a petition for release on a writ of habeas corpus. G. A. Sprague, alleged accomplice in the scheme, in which the two are alleged to have obtained $65,000, was released on a writ last week. Sprague was freed by Judge S. H. Sibley when his attorneys argued that he had been given three two-year terms for a single offense. Webster's petition contains the same claims.

William R. Eary, burglar, who was injured several months ago in an attempt to loot the Beck & Gregg Hardware Company, Monday pleaded guilty to burglarizing the Peachtree street store of the J. Regenstein Company and was sentenced to serve from 5 to 10 years. The term

PROMINENT MEMPHIS WOMAN DISAPPEARS

Auto of Missing Woman Found Near Bridge Over Mississippi.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Jan. 5.—(AP)—The disappearance of Mrs. F. Harry Long, 24, member of the Junior League here and mother of a baby son, was unsolved tonight, although two police officers said they have reason to believe she is alive.

Detective Inspector W. T. Griffin and Captain John Foppiano declined to say why they altered their previous expressed fear, shared by her family, that she drowned herself in the Mississippi river.

Mrs. Long, dark haired debutante of a few years ago, played bridge yesterday afternoon, made engagements with a dentist and with friends for dinner and a show tonight, and disappeared.

The finding of her automobile near the river bank and the absence of any word from her since she vanished last night led to the conclusion she may have committed suicide for some reason which her husband and family say is unknown to them.

The automobile was found near the entrance to the Harahan bridge, which spans the river. It was her hat, coat and gloves.

ported to the police. The baubles after ordering five gallons of gasoline for their motor car forced the manager inside the office at the point of a gun and took the money.

Election of officers of 1931 will feature a meeting of the Atlanta Bird Club at the Chamber of Commerce building tonight at 7:30 o'clock. It was announced Monday by Earl Green, president.

Incendiary fires over the week-end are being investigated by police and fire inspector. Three empty box cars found on a track near the city hall, which had been set on fire early Saturday night, Sunday night a vacant two-story house at 513 North Highland avenue was the scene of a reported incendiary blaze, while vacant houses at 687 Tullin street, N. W., and at 711 Marietta street, were damaged by fires of incendiary origin, according to fire department reports.

W. A. (Red) Florence Monday was appointed borough paymaster to succeed John L. Cone, who became recorder of the second division. Al Dobbs, formerly second assistant paymaster, was named to succeed Florence as first assistant.

Members of the 1931 finance committee will begin active work today preparing the fiscal budget at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, it was announced Monday night by Alderman J. Charlie Murphy, chairman. He declared he would be at the comptroller's office at the city hall after 1 o'clock this afternoon and would discuss any matters of importance with citizens.

Miss Ruth Key, Mayor James L. Key's daughter, and Miss Flo Leobr, of Cleveland, Mo., Key's roommate at Wesleyan College, Monday occupied seats of honor on the rostrum as the new mayor was inducted into office.

Atlanta's light bill for 1930 was $314,069.70, according to the annual report submitted to council Monday afternoon by Pat Handley, superintendent of electrical affairs. A total of $348,777.92 was expended for all purposes.

Atlanta's new city hall was exhibited to the public Monday night following inauguration of Mayor James L. Key.

Luke Arnold Monday set what is believed to have been an all-time record in Atlanta when he stepped from his seat as a member of the 1930 council into the office of Mayor James L. Key as the latter's secretary.

William A. Sutton, president of the N. E. A., who has been making a tour of the west in the interest of the association, is expected back at his desk Friday morning. It was announced from administration offices Monday.

John A. McDonald, president of the National Construction Company, promised retiring Mayor I. N. Ragsdale Monday that any defects in the new city hall would be corrected by his company. The mayor called on Mr. McDonald regarding several minor defects.

Friends of Retiring Mayor I. N. Ragsdale and of Mayor James L. Key Monday showered them with flowers at the inauguration ceremonies at the city hall.

School population of Atlanta and Fulton county Monday hit the 80,000 mark as registrations for the new term were begun. Schools of both systems formally opened Monday morning.

Only half of the bonded limit for Atlanta is exhausted, according to the report of the finance committee offered to council Monday afternoon. The total net indebtedness is $14,265,925.

Helen Gould Auxiliary, No. 1, United Spanish War Veterans, at a luncheon at 1 o'clock Wednesday in the green room of the Henry Grady hotel will have as its guest Miss Mildred B. Rhodes, of Athens, state department president.

When the edge of the sidewalk crumbled beneath him, W. A. Crawford, of 692 Tenth street, was badly bruised early Monday night in a fall at the old city hall site, Marietta and Forsyth streets.

Lee-Roosevelt Camp, United Spanish War Veterans, will install officers for 1931 at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Red Men's Wigwam on Central avenue. It was announced Monday by the outgoing commander, William Hairston. The installation will be in charge of Barney Bernad, senior vice state commander, who was designated by State Department Commander Steven N. Harris.

Three-year-old George Sweeney, son of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Sweeney, of 1192 Oakdale road, N. E., has been dismissed from a Valdosta hospital, where he was treated for injuries received in an automobile accident north of that city during the week-end. The child, his small sister, and Mrs. Sweeney were en route to Quitman to visit the latter's father when a blow-out caused their car to overturn near Mineola. Only the boy was injured.

Two white men shortly after 8 o'clock Monday night held up V. D. Black, of Stoneham, manager of a filling station at 373 Whitehall street, and robbed him of $55 in cash, he reported.

BURGESS CHILDREN'S STORIES

A GAME OF DODGE.

BY THORNTON W. BURGESS.

When fleetness will not win a race, Just dodge and try a change of pace.

—Jumper The Hare.

Jumper the Hare is famous for his speed and for his ability to dodge. Only his small cousin, Peter Rabbit, whose tail is like mother's powder puff, can equal Jumper in the art of dodging. Both Jumper and Peter have escaped from enemies many times by dodging at just the right instant. Only a few, even of the fastest runners, can depend wholly on speed for safety. You see, there are wings that are swifter than legs.

Jumper had discovered that Whitey the Snowy Owl had come down from the Far North and the discovery had not added to Jumper's peace of mind. N. Y. sir, it hadn't added to Jumper's peace of mind. You see, Whitey wears a white coat, hence his name. Now, when the earth is covered with snow one who is dressed in white is not easily seen. Jumper knew this, of course. You see, in winter he dresses in white himself, and many times has he escaped an enemy just by sitting perfectly still right in plain sight. So now that he had found out that Whitey was about he was much disturbed. It was going to require never-ending watchfulness on his part to keep out of the great hooked claws of Whitey.

"It isn't fair for an enemy to be dressed in white," muttered Jumper, quite forgetting that probably Hooty the Great Horned Owl, Reddy Fox and some other hungry enemies thought it quite as unfair that he should be given a white coat. "I am told that this big Owl can see as well by day as most Owls can by night. I wonder if that is true?" He found out that very afternoon. He had decided to visit another part of the Green Forest, some distance from where he had seen Whitey. He first looked carefully in all directions to make sure that the way was clear. Nowhere could he see anything that look like a least bit suspicious. Jumper came out from under the little hemlock tree where he had been hiding, and started off, not too fast, lest he run headlong into unseen danger. His long ears were erect to catch any suspicious sound. His big eyes were watching, not only ahead, but behind as well. He had gone but a short distance when off to one side and back of him what seemed like the upper part of a tall white birch stub appeared to break off and sail out on two broad white wings.

Jumper was away like a shot, and when Jumper really tries to run he is a sight worth seeing. Away he went in great bounds, those long hind legs acting like a pair of powerful springs. But fast as he was Jumper found that Whitey was just as fast. It was surprising how fast those great broad wings carried him along. At first he didn't gain, but after a bit Jumper began to slow down without knowing it. Then Whitey began to shorten the distance between them. It came over Jumper that his legs would tire before Whitey's wings would.

Whitey was coming fast now. Jumper saw that he was just about ready to strike. Jumper dodged and away he went in quite another direction. Whitey turned as quickly as he could, but Jumper gained. A few minutes later Jumper dodged again with the same result. So began a game of Dodge with a good dinner the prize for Whitey the Snowy Owl if he should win, and his own life the prize for Jumper should he win. Every instant it seemed more exciting. It didn't seem as if Jumper could possibly keep it up. No, sir, it didn't.

The next story: "Whitey Bears No Ill Will."

HOOVERASKED TOSPEAK AT HARDING MEMORIAL

MARION, Ohio, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Trustees of the Harding Memorial Association, in session here this afternoon, extended an invitation to President Hoover to come to Marion and deliver the dedicatory address at the dedication of the tomb of the late President Warren G. Harding. Former President Calvin Coolidge was invited to attend the dedication and to preside. The invitations, embodied in a resolution, requested that the date for the dedication be set between May 15 and November 15, next, to suit the conveniences of the president and Mr. Coolidge.

FINAL CLEAN-UP!

241
Fall and Winter
DRESSES

Comprising the entire Stock.... at sensational reductions....for quick Clearance!

$8...$11...$16
$23...$27...$37

All Far Less Than 1/2 Price!

In the groups at $23, $27 and $37 are 65 French Room Dresses, far less than half former prices!

All Types of Dress... Broken
Size Range!

Second Floor

J. P. ALLEN & CO.
The Store All Women Know

IMPORTER
Weinberger
Gowns

COMPLETE
CLEARANCE

EVERY

HAT—

WRAP—

GOWN

Less Than Half-Price

Today - Wednesday - Thursday

Purchases in This Sale Will Appear on March First Statements

"Shop Individual"

TWO-FORTY-FOUR PEACHTREE

Children's Colds Checked without "dosing" Rub on VICKS
VAPOR
OVER 17 MILLION JARS USED YEARLY

The Other Bullet

By Nancy Barr Mavity

INSTALLMENT XXXVIII.

Jimmy had fed the man with whisky out of a water tumbler held in one hand, while with the other he seized the sheets from the typewriter and flung them over his shoulder to a copy boy.

His only comment had been: "That's real newspaper work." But when he said it, Jimmy had handed him the last sheet, Jimmy was there to catch his sagging figure before he dropped sideways from his chair in a dead faint. Later he had gone quietly to Lammie's home and told his mother not to worry about money—that he would personally lend her any amount she might need to tide her over.

The camera men and the reporters who drifted on and off the Herald staff had learned not to curse Jimmy's slave-driving, his unreasonable, his furiously hurled insults, in Lammie's presence.

"Shut up!" he would growl. "Or else come on and say that again outside."

And nobody, seeing the tightened line of Lammie's jaw, cared to say it again outside.

"Jimmy's just got to cackle," Peter had explained to a cub who, with grievously hurt feelings and tears of angry humiliation smarting in his eyes, had announced that he didn't have to stand for such talk from any body, and was "through."

"You can no more stop him than you can stop a hen. But we're his downy chicks and he's brooding over us all with his wings. Maybe you'll find that out some day. In the meantime, don't be a fool."

Jimmy was surviving. Peter now with that look of tender brooding. "Snap out of it, Piper!" he said in his gruff voice. "You were supposed to be getting a vacation. You'd better take it—right now."

"Yes, I do want some time off," Peter said indifferently, "though I'm going to stick around."

"Afraid you'll run into more trouble if you go back to the wilds?" Jimmy asked.

"I already have. Plenty more. And Jimmy, I want to borrow some money. I don't know how much, but to all I want." Peter's eyes had come to earth now. Behind their thick lenses, they shone with a magnificent brilliance as he focused them on Jimmy's face.

Jimmy glanced sharply at this suddenly revived Peter.

"What have you been up to?" he demanded. "You can't borrow money from the office. It's against the rules—you know that."

"Who said anything about rules? I don't want to borrow it from the office. I want to borrow it from you. Maybe I'll pay it back, and maybe you can clear up the cashier's ledger. And I haven't been up to anything yet—but I'm going to be."

As Jimmy had earlier dismissed the idea that Peter was drunk, so now he considered and abandoned the possibility that he was suffering a mental breakdown.

"You're crazy like a fox, you are," he grunted, answering his own thought. "What's it all about?"

"I'm not through with this Morrison yarn, that's what." Jimmy's eyelids jerked downward over one temple.

"I thought it had slipped your mind this morning that there was any Morrison yarn," he jeered. "Besides, you got the lady off, when the Times was plugging for conviction. What more do you want?"

"Well, there was a corpse in the story, you know," Peter said sweetly. "Everybody seems to have forgotten about him. But he's still there—and still dead. I'm not quite satisfied with person or persons unknown. The police have dropped it, because they haven't anything to go on. There's only one constable in Hangtown any way. The sheriff isn't anybody's fog, but he is a relic of a more robust age. He just can't take plugging a man as seriously as we do in these degenerate times. The field is all ours. I want to find out who really did kill Morrison. I want to find out so bad that it itches like a flea bite."

"Have you got anything?" Jimmy snapped curtly.

Peter grinned. When Jimmy pounced like that he was interested. "So little that I don't dare even suggest doing it on office time. But I can't bear to let it drop. If I did I'd wind up in the bughouse, plaintively begging the keepers to tell me who killed Morrison. And I tell you, Jimmy, if I do get it, it'll be a wow—a regular mellerdrummer. If I don't—well, we'll call it my vacation and I'll pay you back. I just want to know I can call on you for money if I need it."

"I suppose you want me to mortgage the old homestead, and have the mortgage foreclosed to slow music just before you come in waving your story. Then the business office will refuse to square the account because no expenditure was authorized by the Herald."

"Sure!" Peter said cheerfully. "You've got the idea with almost Lammie intelligence."

"My God," Jimmy groaned, "what I do have to put up with! I suppose you won't be any good to the Herald if I refuse and you go mooning around with this thing biting you all the time. But for the love of Mike, go easy. Remember you aren't flourishing a Herald 'swindle sheet,' and I've a wife and child to support. And don't whistle as you go out."

That, however, was precisely what Peter did. The plaintive notes attributed to a dying cat set the teeth of the local room on edge and were followed by a unanimous sigh of relief as the door slammed shut behind him.

In the days that ensued, Peter grumbled followed by the faintest glimmer of encouragement. It is days like these, days of dreary monotony and failure, which pass unreflected in the daily press and try the souls of reporters to the uttermost. Some of them give up and some of them get drunk, but Peter did neither. He merely plodded on, covering the same ground over and over in a dismal circle. But he no longer whistled.

"All right. I'll drop in again tomorrow," he had said the words so often that they took on the monstrous reiteration of a dream, in which the dreamer returns again and again to the same starting point.

If the man who took the ring had a motive other than robbery, all he had to do was to keep it, and Peter's quest was hopeless. There was the further bare chance that he might be forced to part with it in order to get money, or that for some reason he feared to have it remain in his possession. If, on the other hand, he had stolen the ring for its value, he would certainly have no chance to get rid of it in Hangtown, and would doubtless make for the city.

What he would do then, depended on the type of man he was, and of this Peter had no inkling. He might pawn or sell the ring as it was; but it was distinctive in appearance, and if he feared being traced, he might pry out the emeralds and dispose of them as uncut stones. In either case, he would almost certainly wait until the murder trial, in order to be sure that the loss had not been discovered and a hue and cry raised. Once assured that the ring had not been missed, he would feel free to act. In fact, he was the more likely to act openly, since he had reason to suppose that the ring had not been missed as a suspicious circumstance in connection with the murder.

Following this line of reasoning, Peter made the rounds of the dealers in gems, the jewelry stores, even the remedial loan company and the Morris Plan bank, on the chance that the ring might have been offered as security for a loan. It was a complete list, culled from the classified section of the telephone directory, and it took him all day to cover the route. At the end of it, he went to the cubby hole in the city hall given over to the pawn shop detail, and went through the daily report of pawned articles compiled by Inspector Larriman. The next morning he began it all over again.

snapped curtly. Peter grinned. When Jimmy pounced like that he was interested. "So little that I don't dare even suggest doing it on office time. But I can't bear to let it drop. If I did I'd wind up in the bughouse, plaintively begging the keepers to tell me who killed Morrison. And I tell you, Jimmy, if I do get it, it'll be a wow—a regular mellerdrummer. If I don't—well, we'll call it my vacation and I'll pay you back. I just want to know I can call on you for money if I need it."

"I suppose you want me to mortgage the old homestead, and have the mortgage foreclosed to slow music just before you come in waving your story. Then the business office will refuse to square the account because no expenditure was authorized by the Herald."

"Sure!" Peter said cheerfully. "You've got the idea with almost Lammie intelligence."

"My God," Jimmy groaned, "what I do have to put up with! I suppose you won't be any good to the Herald if I refuse and you go mooning around with this thing biting you all the time. But for the love of Mike, go easy. Remember you aren't flourishing a Herald 'swindle sheet,' and I've a wife and child to support. And don't whistle as you go out."

That, however, was precisely what Peter did. The plaintive notes attributed to a dying cat set the teeth of the local room on edge and were followed by a unanimous sigh of relief as the door slammed shut behind him.

In the days that ensued, Peter grumbled followed by the faintest glimmer of encouragement. It is days like these, days of dreary monotony and failure, which pass unreflected in the daily press and try the souls of reporters to the uttermost. Some of them give up and some of them get drunk, but Peter did neither. He merely plodded on, covering the same ground over and over in a dismal circle. But he no longer whistled.

"All right. I'll drop in again tomorrow," he had said the words so often that they took on the monstrous reiteration of a dream, in which the dreamer returns again and again to the same starting point.

If the man who took the ring had a motive other than robbery, all he had to do was to keep it, and Peter's quest was hopeless. There was the further bare chance that he might be forced to part with it in order to get money, or that for some reason he feared to have it remain in his possession. If, on the other hand, he had stolen the ring for its value, he would certainly have no chance to get rid of it in Hangtown, and would doubtless make for the city.

What he would do then, depended on the type of man he was, and of this Peter had no inkling. He might pawn or sell the ring as it was; but it was distinctive in appearance, and if he feared being traced, he might pry out the emeralds and dispose of them as uncut stones. In either case, he would almost certainly wait until the murder trial, in order to be sure that the loss had not been discovered and a hue and cry raised. Once assured that the ring had not been missed, he would feel free to act. In fact, he was the more likely to act openly, since he had reason to suppose that the ring had not been missed as a suspicious circumstance in connection with the murder.

Following this line of reasoning, Peter made the rounds of the dealers in gems, the jewelry stores, even the remedial loan company and the Morris Plan bank, on the chance that the ring might have been offered as security for a loan. It was a complete list, culled from the classified section of the telephone directory, and it took him all day to cover the route. At the end of it, he went to the cubby hole in the city hall given over to the pawn shop detail, and went through the daily report of pawned articles compiled by Inspector Larriman. The next morning he began it all over again.

snapped curtly. Peter grinned. When Jimmy pounced like that he was interested. "So little that I don't dare even suggest doing it on office time. But I can't bear to let it drop. If I did I'd wind up in the bughouse, plaintively begging the keepers to tell me who killed Morrison. And I tell you, Jimmy, if I do get it, it'll be a wow—a regular mellerdrummer. If I don't—well, we'll call it my vacation and I'll pay you back. I just want to know I can call on you for money if I need it."

"I suppose you want me to mortgage the old homestead, and have the mortgage foreclosed to slow music just before you come in waving your story. Then the business office will refuse to square the account because no expenditure was authorized by the Herald."

"Sure!" Peter said cheerfully. "You've got the idea with almost Lammie intelligence."

"My God," Jimmy groaned, "what I do have to put up with! I suppose you won't be any good to the Herald if I refuse and you go mooning around with this thing biting you all the time. But for the love of Mike, go easy. Remember you aren't flourishing a Herald 'swindle sheet,' and I've a wife and child to support. And don't whistle as you go out."

That, however, was precisely what Peter did. The plaintive notes attributed to a dying cat set the teeth of the local room on edge and were followed by a unanimous sigh of relief as the door slammed shut behind him.

In the days that ensued, Peter grumbled followed by the faintest glimmer of encouragement. It is days like these, days of dreary monotony and failure, which pass unreflected in the daily press and try the souls of reporters to the uttermost. Some of them give up and some of them get drunk, but Peter did neither. He merely plodded on, covering the same ground over and over in a dismal circle. But he no longer whistled.

"All right. I'll drop in again tomorrow," he had said the words so often that they took on the monstrous reiteration of a dream, in which the dreamer returns again and again to the same starting point.

If the man who took the ring had a motive other than robbery, all he had to do was to keep it, and Peter's quest was hopeless. There was the further bare chance that he might be forced to part with it in order to get money, or that for some reason he feared to have it remain in his possession. If, on the other hand, he had stolen the ring for its value, he would certainly have no chance to get rid of it in Hangtown, and would doubtless make for the city.

What he would do then, depended on the type of man he was, and of this Peter had no inkling. He might pawn or sell the ring as it was; but it was distinctive in appearance, and if he feared being traced, he might pry out the emeralds and dispose of them as uncut stones. In either case, he would almost certainly wait until the murder trial, in order to be sure that the loss had not been discovered and a hue and cry raised. Once assured that the ring had not been missed, he would feel free to act. In fact, he was the more likely to act openly, since he had reason to suppose that the ring had not been missed as a suspicious circumstance in connection with the murder.

Following this line of reasoning, Peter made the rounds of the dealers in gems, the jewelry stores, even the remedial loan company and the Morris Plan bank, on the chance that the ring might have been offered as security for a loan. It was a complete list, culled from the classified section of the telephone directory, and it took him all day to cover the route. At the end of it, he went to the cubby hole in the city hall given over to the pawn shop detail, and went through the daily report of pawned articles compiled by Inspector Larriman. The next morning he began it all over again.

snapped curtly. Peter grinned. When Jimmy pounced like that he was interested. "So little that I don't dare even suggest doing it on office time. But I can't bear to let it drop. If I did I'd wind up in the bughouse, plaintively begging the keepers to tell me who killed Morrison. And I tell you, Jimmy, if I do get it, it'll be a wow—a regular mellerdrummer. If I don't—well, we'll call it my vacation and I'll pay you back. I just want to know I can call on you for money if I need it."

"I suppose you want me to mortgage the old homestead, and have the mortgage foreclosed to slow music just before you come in waving your story. Then the business office will refuse to square the account because no expenditure was authorized by the Herald."

"Sure!" Peter said cheerfully. "You've got the idea with almost Lammie intelligence."

"My God," Jimmy groaned, "what I do have to put up with! I suppose you won't be any good to the Herald if I refuse and you go mooning around with this thing biting you all the time. But for the love of Mike, go easy. Remember you aren't flourishing a Herald 'swindle sheet,' and I've a wife and child to support. And don't whistle as you go out."

That, however, was precisely what Peter did. The plaintive notes attributed to a dying cat set the teeth of the local room on edge and were followed by a unanimous sigh of relief as the door slammed shut behind him.

In the days that ensued, Peter grumbled followed by the faintest glimmer of encouragement. It is days like these, days of dreary monotony and failure, which pass unreflected in the daily press and try the souls of reporters to the uttermost. Some of them give up and some of them get drunk, but Peter did neither. He merely plodded on, covering the same ground over and over in a dismal circle. But he no longer whistled.

"All right. I'll drop in again tomorrow," he had said the words so often that they took on the monstrous reiteration of a dream, in which the dreamer returns again and again to the same starting point.

If the man who took the ring had a motive other than robbery, all he had to do was to keep it, and Peter's quest was hopeless. There was the further bare chance that he might be forced to part with it in order to get money, or that for some reason he feared to have it remain in his possession. If, on the other hand, he had stolen the ring for its value, he would certainly have no chance to get rid of it in Hangtown, and would doubtless make for the city.

What he would do then, depended on the type of man he was, and of this Peter had no inkling. He might pawn or sell the ring as it was; but it was distinctive in appearance, and if he feared being traced, he might pry out the emeralds and dispose of them as uncut stones. In either case, he would almost certainly wait until the murder trial, in order to be sure that the loss had not been discovered and a hue and cry raised. Once assured that the ring had not been missed, he would feel free to act. In fact, he was the more likely to act openly, since he had reason to suppose that the ring had not been missed as a suspicious circumstance in connection with the murder.

Following this line of reasoning, Peter made the rounds of the dealers in gems, the jewelry stores, even the remedial loan company and the Morris Plan bank, on the chance that the ring might have been offered as security for a loan. It was a complete list, culled from the classified section of the telephone directory, and it took him all day to cover the route. At the end of it, he went to the cubby hole in the city hall given over to the pawn shop detail, and went through the daily report of pawned articles compiled by Inspector Larriman. The next morning he began it all over again.

snapped curtly. Peter grinned. When Jimmy pounced like that he was interested. "So little that I don't dare even suggest doing it on office time. But I can't bear to let it drop. If I did I'd wind up in the bughouse, plaintively begging the keepers to tell me who killed Morrison. And I tell you, Jimmy, if I do get it, it'll be a wow—a regular mellerdrummer. If I don't—well, we'll call it my vacation and I'll pay you back. I just want to know I can call on you for money if I need it."

THE GUMPS—A SURE CURE

MOON MULLINS—THE OLD SOAK

SMITTY—CHOOSE YOUR EXIT

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE: The Student

WINNIE WINKLE, THE BREADWINNER: Canned Music

GASOLINE ALLEY—BUSINESS CATASTROPHE

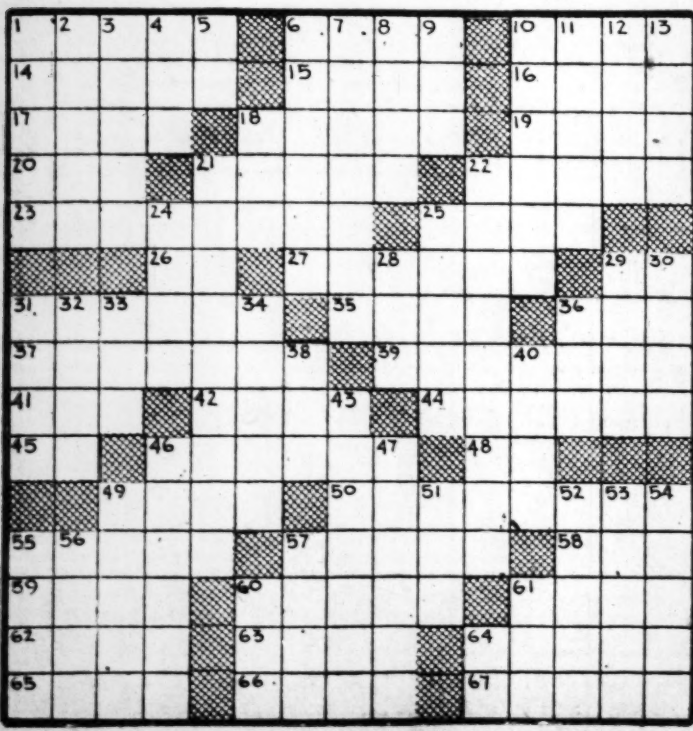

Today's Cross-Word Puzzle

ACROSS.

- 1 A Roman map.
- 6 Bristle.
- 10 Baby carriage.
- 14 One of the con-
- 15 Case of small
- 16 Worthless, Bib-
- 14 Puts on.
- 18 Mix together.
- 19 The birds.
- 20 Chinese pagoda.
- 21 Spanish priest.
- 22 To put forth.
- 23 Nine-sided figure.
- 25 Axle.
- 26 Near.
- 27 Trees.
- 29 Note of the scale.
- 31 Stellar.
- 33 A mixture of sand and clay.
- 36 Roman coins.
- 37 A mine worker.
- 38 To form a jury.
- 41 Swiss canton.
- 42 A corf.
- 44 A compound of oleic acid.
- 45 Toward.
- 46 Turkish decree.
- 48 Land measure.
- 49 Sect.
- 50 Relating to nerves.
- 53 Large water fowl.

DOWN.

- 1 Turkish gov-
- 2 A follower of Arius.
- 3 Goods sunk in the sea to be retrieved later.
- 4 Spanish plural article.
- 5 Indefinite article.
- 6 Not often.
- 7 Endless melody.
- 8 Support.
- 9 Practice of an art.
- 11 Talks wildly.
- 12 Genus of snakes.
- 13 A long spar.
- 18 Sack.
- 21 A person of high birth.
- 22 Commendable.
- 24 A British peer.
- 25 Texas popular.
- 28 Hawaiian food.
- 29 Fitting.
- 30 Island.
- 31 Shud tail.
- 32 Bull, Spanish.
- 33 Adopted son of Mahomet.
- 34 Long form.
- 36 Collection of literature.
- 39 Air, combining form.
- 43 One who has a fasten with a thread.
- 44 Behold.
- 46 Flowery.
- 47 Approached.
- 49 Mourning material.
- 51 Sap used in rubber.
- 52 Claw.
- 53 Void of intelligence.
- 54 Roll of tobacco.
- 55 Slices of yam tied together.
- 56 American lake.
- 57 Performance by liquor.
- 60 A bird's jaw.
- 61 Fasten with a thread.
- 64 Behold.

SELLING HURTS SHARES ON CURB

BY CLAUDE A. JAGGER.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—(AP)—The curb market held a steady undertone through several waves of selling today and closed irregular, with some of the utilities slightly lower, the oils little changed and numerous industrial specialties a point or two higher.

The broad recovery of last week's made realizing rather inevitable and sales of stock on which holders had a fair profit were numerous. Volume of trading, 462,800 shares, was larger than last Friday.

Small buying in representative preferred issues was a feature and the market in such securities is so thin that gains of 2 to 3 points were frequent as odd lots changed hands. American Gas & Electric, selling without the large stock dividend, lost a couple of points net and closed 2 points above the 1930 low. Its rapid rise last week was due to covering by shorts who desired to withdraw before the 20 per cent stock payment was deducted from the issue. Electric Bond & Share met considerable stock all day, dropping 2 points but halving its loss. Other utility leaders were quiet, although several closed fractionally lower.

The Indian Territory Illuminating Oil shares rallied independently of Cities Service, which waited until the final minutes to move up 5-8. Vacuum ruled slightly lower, with a few shares, but finally broke 4 points. Gulf and Humble were steady.

Libby McNeil and Swift improved a point when the patent modification of the packers' consent decree was announced.

Anglo-Chilean Nitrate hardened and closed 3 points higher. The stock gains of 1 to 2 in Starratt Corp., Crocker Wheeler, Glen Alden, Rike Krumler, Todd Shipyard and Western Air Express.

News that United Founders had acquired a controlling interest in United States Electric Power helped both stocks. Goldman Sachs Trading, which had sold most of its 32 per cent holding in the Manufacturers Trust Company, a New York bank, also firmed.

Brokerage Service for Securities and Commodities

FENNER & BEANE

ATLANTA
Office

R. A. McCOY, Resident Partner

65 N. Forsyth St., N. W.

Phone Walnut 1090

MEMBERS

New York Stock Exchange

and

Principal Commodities Exchanges

Private Wires to

New York, New Orleans, Chicago

New York Curb Exchange Transactions

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—Following is the official list of transactions on the New York Curb Exchange giving all stocks and bonds traded:

STOCKS.

Sales (in hundreds). High Low Close.

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

Sales (in hundreds). High Low Close.

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

Sales (in $1,000). High Low Close.

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

1 Aero Ind war 1 1 1

